This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

DEAR BROTHER:

This, the seventh edition of the Catalogue of our Order, has been compiled for professional use, and with a view of increasing the interest of graduate members in the affairs of the fraternity as a whole.

The Chapters are arranged in the order of their establishment. The names are arranged alphabetically in classes, except in the cases of the Marshall and Minor Chapters, where the degrees taken vary, and it was deemed inexpedient to continue the classification. Each member is supposed to have received the regular degree conferred by the law school at which he was a student, and to be engaged in the regular practice of the law. Death is denoted by an *, preceded by the date, if known. A name is usually inserted once, but where a member has belonged to two Chapters his name will be found in both Chapters.

Although meeting with many discouragements in the nine years during which the cataloguer has endeavored to solidify the fraternity, it is still his belief that the Order has a mission to perform and will eventually be of great force in the legal profession.

With a sigh of relief this Catalogue is offered to the fraternity. Conscious of the fact that in its compilation all data obtainable have been used, no apology is offered for its short comings. Occasional inaccuracies are inevitable in a work of this nature and magnitude.

The request usually found in other fraternity catalogues is here repeated. "All persons into whose hands this book may fall, whether they are members of the Fraternity or not, are requested to supply corrections and additions." Such corrections are necessary in preparing a subsequent edition.

Should this book, besides being of business value to the members, cause them to take a deeper interest in the noble purposes for which this Fraternity was founded, the editor will feel himself fully repaid for the many patient hours of labor spent upon it.

Fraternally,

GEO. A. KATZENBERGER.

HISTORY OF PHI DELTA PHI.

The Fraternity of PHI DELTA PHI was founded at the Law School of the University of Michigan in 1869. There had been a local society, confined exclusively to law students, at Ann Arbor, for a year or two previous to this time, and during one session at least "Alpha Phi" had been admitted to representation on the Palladium, but none of the original PHI DELTA PHI'S seem to have known about it or designed to imitate it. There is more or less uncertainty about the details of the original organization, but most of the members at the present time ascribe the honor of originating the idea to John M. Howard of the Law Class of 1871. Brother Howard graduated at Monmouth College, Ill., in the classical course at the head of his class. He was a member of the PHI GAMMA DELTA Fraternity, and coming to Ann Arbor in September, 1869, was commissioned by those in authority in said Fraternity to organize, if he found it possible, a chapter among the literary students at the University of Michigan. Not finding what he regarded as suitable material after the other fraternities had taken the pick of the students, he abandoned the idea.

From time to time during the fall of 1869, in private conversation with a few of his most intimate friends, he discussed the advisability of a fraternity exclusively composed of law students and lawyers.

At that time, they supposed that such a fraternity was in existence in the older law schools of the Eastern States, and at a meeting held Nov. 22, 1869, a committee was appointed to correspond with officers of the Eastern Law Schools to ascertain whether such an organization already existed. This meeting was held at Mr. Hawes' room, Brothers Beebe, Hawes, Howard, Howell and Monteith being present. On December 1, 1869, another meeting was held by which time they had learned that no such organization existed in any other Law School. They at once determined to establish one for themselves on the general plan of college fraternities, and accordingly the following committies were appointed: on drafting a constitution, Brothers Cleland, Howard and Ronan; on ritual, Brothers Beebe, Howell and Monteith. On December 13, 1869, they met in the Gregory House, and there effected an organization by adopting a constitution and ritual, and electing officers, Brother Howard having the honor of being elected the first presiding officer. Following are the minutes of that meeting:

"Society met, Mr. Hawes in the chair. Committee on constitution reported. Their report was accepted. The report of the committee on ritual was then presented and accepted. Moved and carried that a committee of engrossing be appointed. The chair appointed on that committee Messrs. Howell and———. The society then appointed the following gentlemen as a committee on by-laws: Messrs. Hawes, Cleland and Howard. As committee on badges, Messrs. Howell, Ronan and Hawes. The society then went into the election of officers which resulted as as follows: For Consul, J. M. Howard; Proconsul, Hawes; Scriptor, Cleland; Tribune, Ronan; Gladiator, Thomas. A committee on credentials was then appointed, viz., Messrs. Ronan, Howell and Cleland. Moved and carried that the Scriptor be empowered to procure a suitable minute book. Committee to procure room: Messrs. Howard and Beebe. The order of business was then adopted. Committee on Palladium was then appointed: Messrs. Howard and Howell. The following gentlemen were then elected, F. F. Wendell, E. E. Allen, Z. L. Wise. Society adjourned.

J. HOWELLS, Secy. Pro tem.

The next meeting was held December 19, 1869, and on February 5, 1870, they initiated in regular form, Brother F. F. Wendell. On October 25, 1873, the place of meeting was changed to Odd Fellows Hall, where meetings were held until Oct. 19, 1878, when the present quarters of the chapter on Main street were obtained. The new fraternity was called the PHI DELTA PHI, and its chapters were to be named after distinguished jurists, statesmen and lawyers. In accordance with this intention, the first chapter was named in honor of Chancellor James Kent. It was intended to establish chapters only in law schools of high standing, for which reason it was ordained that new chapters should not be established without unanimous consent of existing chapters. Membership was to be of two classes: regular, composed of undergraduate students, and honorary; it being required that the latter should be members of the legal profession, or of the faculty, and be elected and initiated in the same manner as regular members.

PREAMBLE.

The preamble to the constitution adopted, reads as follows:—"We, the undersigned, students of the Law Department of the University of Michigan, in order to promote a higher standard of professional ethics and culture in this and other Law Schools, and in the profession at large, and desiring to unite ourselves in the endearing bonds of affection and brotherly love, for the purpose of compassing these ends do associate ourselves into a fraternity to be known as the PHI DELTA PHI." Persons who were members of the general college fraternities were encouraged to join the new organization as there is no conflict of allegiance.

The badge at that time, was in shield form terminating in a sharp pointed top. In the center was a shield displaying five rectangular crosses, and above the shield were the Greek letters, "PHI DELTA PHI;" at each corner of the badge was a star. The colors chosen were claret red and pearl blue. The fraternity met with the active encouragement of the law faculty at the University and such members of the faculty as were made honorary members have always evinced a lively interest in the welfare of the Fraternity.

Judge Thomas M. Cooley, who was the first honorary member of the Order, has frequently been designated as "Father of the Fraternity," but modestly says that his assistance was "in the nature of advice, rather than labor." No attempt at extension was made until 1875, when the Sharswood Club, a local Law organization of good standing, in the University of Pennsylvania, was admitted under the name of the "SHARSWOOD" Chapter. The members, however, returned their charter shortly afterwards, for the alleged reason that the prescribed initiation ceremony was unsatisfactory. In 1878, a chapter was placed in the Law Department of the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, and in May, 1880, the BOOTH Chapter was established in the Union College of Law. In December of the year following, STORY Chapter was placed in the Columbia Law School of New York City.

During all this time, the Fraternity was controlled by a Grand Chapter, which held annual conventions in connection with the annual reunion of the Chapter Alumni. The necessity of several changes in the management of the organization being apparent, was called and held at Ann Arbor, March 3, 1882. At this convention, a new constitution was adopted providing for a Board of Directors called "The Council," endowed with both executive and judicial functions. The original Council was composed of the following members:

THE FIRST NATIONAL CONVENTION

Mason J. Niblack, KENT, '82, Vincennes, Ind.
Chas. P. Doolittle, KENT, '83, Oberlin, Ohio.
Wm. R. Baird, STORY, '82, New York City, N. Y.

The badge was changed to a neat monogram, and it was provided that "a convention of the chapters and the Council shall be held at least once in every three years at such time and place as the last convention shall have determined."

EXTENSION.

From that time, the material prosperity and growth of the Fraternity has been unabated, the roll of chapters now being:

1869 KENT—Law Department, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

1878 BENJAMIN—Law School, Ill., Wesleyan, Univ., Bloomington, Ill. (1888).

1880 BOOTH—Northwestern University Law School, Chicago, Ill.

1881 STORY—Law School of Columbia College, New York City, N. Y.

1882 COOLEY—St. Louis Law School, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

1883 POMEROY—Hastings College of the Law, University of California. San Francisco, Cal.

1884 MARSHALL—Law School of the Columbian University, Washington, D. C.

1884 JAY—Albany Law School, Union University, Albany, N. Y. (1893).

1885 WEBSTER—Boston Law School, Boston University, Boston, Mass.

1886 HAMILTON—Cincinnati Law School, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio.

1886 GIBSON—Department of Law, University of Pa., Philadelphia, Pa.

1887 CHOATE—Harvard Law School, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

1887 WAITE—Yale Law School, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

1887 FIELD—Law School, New York University, New York City, N. Y.

1888 CONKLING—Law Department of Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

1890 TIEDEMAN—Law Department, University of State of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.

1890 MINOR—Law Department, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Va.

1891 DILLON—Law Department, University of Minn., Minapolis, Minn.

1891 DANIELS—Buffalo Law School, University of Buffalo, Buffalo, N. Y.

1891 CHASE—Law Department, University of Oregon, Portland, Ore.

1891 HARLAN—College of Law, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin.

1893 SWAN—School of Law, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

1893 MCCLAIN—Law Department, State University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa.

1895 LINCOLN—College of Law, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb.

1896 OSGOODE—Law School of Upper Canada, Toronto, Ontario.

1896 FULLER—Chicago College of Law, Lake Forest University, Chicago, Ill.

1897 MILLER—Law Department, Leland Stanford, Jr., University, Palo Alto, Cal.

1897 GREEN—School of Law, University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas.

The charter of "BENJAMIN" was withdrawn by the Council because of the small amount of material upon which the Chapter depended for membership. The charter of "JAY" was withdrawn for a similar reason, in 1893, by the Third National Convention.

THE BRIEF.

In October, 1887, Brother Baird, then Secretary of the Council, started the publication of a journal devoted to the interests of the Fraternity and known as "The Brief." It contained, in addition to letters from the Scriptors of the several chapters, an appendix showing the geographical distribution of the members. Only five numbers were issued, the publication being suspended in June, 1888. In number 2, the December number, appears a call for a general convention of the Fraternity to take place in New York City in April, 1888, while in number 5, the last issue, appears a similar call fixing the date of a convention to be held on Tuesday, August 14, 1888.

THE SECOND NATIONAL CONVENTION

was held at New York City, May 7 and 8, 1889, delegates from eleven chapters being in attendance. It was called to order at ten A. M., Tuesday, May 7, in Room No. 58, New York University Building, by Brother Baird.

Several constitutional amendments were proposed and carried, and action was taken relative to official jewelers, a book of songs, and annual letters. The membership of the Council was increased to five, the following being elected:

James E. Howell, KENT, '70, Newark, N. J.
Wm. R. Baird, STORY, '82, New York City, N. Y.
Henry W. Jessup, FIELD, '88, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Chas. W. Artz, STORY, '86, New York City, N. Y.
Edward I. Smith, CHOATE, '89, New York City, N. Y.

Upon motion it was enacted that the next convention be held in New York City, the second Tuesday in October, 1892. Owing to the fact, however, that the World's Fair was to be held at a more centrally located city, the Council postponed the date of the to July 17 and 18, 1893, when it was called to order in room No. 309 of the Masonic Temple at Chicago, Ill., at eleven, A. M., July 17, by Brother Baird.

THIRD NATIONAL CONVENTION

While the constitutional provision requiring an affirmative vote of all the chapters necessary to admission of a new one, remained unchanged, an amendment was added directing the Secretary to "record an affirmative vote for any chapter from which no negative vote is received within sixty days (during term time) of the time when a second notice shall have been sent to such chapter requesting action on a petition." As at the previous convention, a motion to consider the establishment of a Fraternity journal was discussed and lost. The committee upon the locality from which the next Council should be selected, and upon the membership of the same, made two reports. It was finally decided to choose neither New York nor Cincinnati, as it was believed that a fuller representation of the chapters could be had at Chicago. The following members of the Council were then elected:

Hon. Geo. Mills Rogers, BOOTH, '81, Chicago, Ill.
Harrison Musgrave, MARSHALL, '84, Chicago, Ill.
Geo. A. Katzenberger, KENT, '90, Chicago, Ill.
Harry J. Kendig, HAMILTON, '88, Chicago, Ill.
Wm. F. Pillsbury, CHOATE, '92, Chicago, Ill.

Before adjournment, the following resolution upon motion was adopted:

"Resolved, that the thanks of this convention be, and are hereby accorded to Brother Wm. R. Baird for his services as Secretary of the Council for the last eleven years."

The policy of the new Council can be outlined as follows: To keep in permanent and accessable form, for the use of successive Councils, the important papers relating to the Order; to plentifully supply the chapters with printed matter, to draw the bands of fellowship and interest closer by frequent publications of list of Scriptors and Consuls with their respective addresses; to cause a more general observance of the constitutional provision for annual letters; to encourage the keeping of scrap-books, letter-files, records, etc., by each chapter.

The songs of the Fraternity were collected and printed. A new edition of the historical leaflet was issued. Suggestions were offered to the chapters for a fitting observance of the 25th anniversary of the founding of our Order, consequently, on December 13, 1894, a considerable number of the chapters celebrated the day by a banquet. Believing that more frequent conventions would be a benefit to both individual chapters and the Fraternity at large, the Council did not wait for the expiration of the three year limit, but gave notice that the

would be held in the lecture room of the Northwestern University Law School in June, 1895. The following chapters were represented either by delegates or proxy instructions: BOOTH, CHASE, CHOATE, CONKLING, DANIELS, DILLON, FIELD, HAMILTON, HARLAN, KENT, LINCOLN, MARSHALL, MCCLAIN, POMEROY and STORY. The convention was called to order at 10 A. M., June 24, by Hon. George Mills Rogers, President of the Council. The report of the Secretary, Geo. A. Katzenberger, showed that the chapters had never before been in such general good standing, and called attention to the fact that, whereas, only KENT and HARLAN Chapters had issued annual letters prior to 1893, eight chapters had, since then, observed the "recommendation" of the convention of 1889. Said recommendation was at this convention, amended, changing the time of issuance of the circular letters by the chapters, from May to February. The constitution was amended to permit the granting of petitions from Canada. An attempt having been made by one of the chapters to elect lady members, the constitution was further amended to prevent so radical an innovation. Realizing that the conservative policy of the Fraternity had been the means of excluding several desirable law clubs, the constitution was amended by the addition of the following clause: "If not more than two (2) chapters dissent, and a majority of the Council shall favor the formation of the proposed chapter, the Secretary shall at once issue a charter to the applicants." Upon recommendation of the Council, the Constitution was also amended, making the election of a Historian by each chapter obligatory.

Biennial conventions were provided for, and the Secretary authorized to compile and publish a new catalogue. The publication of a Fraternity journal was postponed, with a view, however, to the issuance of such a magazine at a not distant date. The minutes of this convention cover forty-one pages, several pages being devoted to the pro and con anent the admission and initiation of ladies. Although the Secretary of the Council offered his resignation, owing to the fact of his removal to another city, the resignation was not accepted and the same Council was elected.

The Council organized themselves as before and adopted a continuance of the same policy. New editions of the constitution and song book, together with the minutes of both Third and Fourth National Conventions were plentifully supplied to each chapter.

THE FIFTH NATIONAL CONVENTION

was held in the Lecture room of the Northwestern University Law School, No. 711 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill., during the Christmas vacation of 1896–7. It was called to order at 10 A. M., Monday, December 28, 1896, by Hon. Geo. Mills Rogers, President of the Council. The following chapters were represented either by delegates or proxy instructions: BOOTH, CHASE, CHOATE, CONKLING, COOLEY, DANIELS, DILLON, FIELD, FULLER, GIBSON, HAMILTON, KENT, LINCOLN, MCCLAIN, MINOR, POMEROY, SWAN, TIEDEMAN, WAITE and WEBSTER.

The report of the Council was lengthy and quoted freely from the annual letters of the Chapters, reflecting an increased interest on the part of all Chapters in the matters pertaining to the whole Order.

The financial report showed that the "Law of 1889" assessing each initiate the sum of one dollar was no longer sufficient to defray the expenses of the Order, and that there was a deficit.

During the afternoon session the matter of the establishment of a fraternity journal was discussed, but the action taken was not sufficiently definite to warrant its publication. The initiation fee was increased to $2.00 and an annual assessment of one dollar on each active member levied.

The following brothers were then elected as members of the new Council:

Hon. Geo. Mills Rogers, BOOTH, '81, Chicago, Ill.
Benjamin S. Cable, STORY, '98, Chicago, Ill.
Wm. Brown, Jr., COOLEY, '96, Chicago, Ill.
Chas. W. Lucas, FULLER, '96, Chicago, Ill.
Geo. A. Katzenberger, KENT, '90, Greenville, O.

The office of Cataloguer was created, and the duties of such officer defined, while the work devolving upon the Scriptor and Historian of each Chapter was more fully outlined. The Forget-me-not was chosen as the Fraternity flower.

The second day session was held on Tuesday, December 29th, and the Secretary of the Council was voted a salary of $75 per college year. After nominations made and roll call, it was decided to hold the next National Convention at Cincinnati, Ohio.

The minutes of this Convention cover 49 pages, an addenda commemorating a delightful banquet given to the visiting delegates by the FULLER Chapter at its headquarters in the cafe of the Pullman building.

Since then the Council has endeavored to carry out all of its own and suggested ideas for the benefit of the Order. It has tried to keep in touch with each officer of every Chapter by frequent communications, and has kept them supplied with fraternity literature, songs, blanks, etc. It continued to encourage the issuance of and now presents a list of all annual letters which have come to its notice:

KENT—September, 1874, calling attention to the sixth annual convention and reunion in February, 1875; January, 1878; December, 1879; December, 1880; January, 1882;

POLICY OF THE ORDER.

It is the settled policy of the Fraternity not to antagonize the existing social or literary organizations in the law schools which is enters. It includes within its ranks, members of all the college fraternities, though in one or two instances, there has been local rivalry. For a time, the BOOTH Chapter had a local rival. Later the Michigan Chapter of Sigma Chi, for a while, confined its membership to the law school, while at present that is true of Kappa Sigma at Ann Arbor. The legal fraternity of Delta Chi has chapters in five of the law schools where our own order had already obtained a foothold, but its competition has been welcomed rather than feared. As indicated by the quoted preamble, the character of the membership of PHI DELTA PHI is necessarily high. Not only does the roll of its honorary members include the Chief Justice of the United States, and several of the Associate Justices, but also the leading professors and legal authors of this country. Its regular members are fast taking prominent places as judges, legislators, managers of great corporations, authors and other positions open to members of the legal profession.

AIMS AND OBJECTS.

The exercises of the chapters vary according to local conditions. Each chapter is recommended to frame a schedule of work to supplement the law school course; for instance, in Law Schools where practice is not taught, the chapters should turn their attention to such exercises; where political science is wanting, the chapters are expected to take up that; in each case, trying to round out and add to the regular instruction. Several of the chapters conclude each meeting with a dinner, while others hear lectures from Alumni members and prominent local attorneys. Nearly all arrange for annual reunions and banquets to which the members of sister chapters and resident alumni are invited.

CATALOGUES.

After graduation, the members form a widespread exchange for the interchange of business and information, as well as professional courtesies, which advantage is facilitated by the catalogues of the Fraternity. A sixteen page catalogue was printed at Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1880, and in September, 1881, a revised edition was published at Fort Madison, Ia. The following editions were compiled and published by Secretary Baird.

Third, Sixty-three pages, 1885.

Fourth, supplement to Third, 1886.

Fifth, one hundred and forty-nine pages, 1889.

Sixth, two hundred and fifty-one pages, preceded by a history of the Fraternity, 1892.

The bond of Union between the graduate members is rather closer than that between members of Greek Letter Fraternities, generally, which is natural where there is a continuous community of interest and pursuits.

The Fraternity, though properly ranked among the foremost of the Greek Letter Secret Societies, does not assume a stringent air of secrecy. It is true, that the motto, the grip, and the pass-words are not communicated to outsiders, but no special secrecy attaches to its constitution, policy or tendency. . A number of the annual announcements of Law Schools publish the roll of chapters and their respective location, as well as the names and official positions of the members of the local chapter.

PHI DELTA PHI has a grand future before it. It is increasing at the rate of about two hundred and fifty members a year, and thus comprises a large per cent. of all the lawyers who are admitted to practice each year. Composed of selected men, who are by training and education, bound to exert a good influence, it cannot but elevate the standard of professional ethics.

This organization is certainly one of the happiest and most successful examples of the fraternity idea.

KENT CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.

ON the 11th of June, 1805, the City of Detroit, Michigan, was laid in ashes, only two buildings escaping. Funds were subscribed by Montreal and Michilimacinac in aid of the sufferers. Part of this fund remaining undistributed, it was decided to use it in the furtherance of education. A school was established in 1808, which two years later, 1810, had 183 pupils. The Territorial Government of Michigan on the 26th of August, 1817, passed an act entitled, "An Act to establish the Catholepistemiad, or University of Michigania," to be located in the village of Detroit. Its inception was due to a man of quaint erudition, named Judge Woodward. It had thirteen professorships, including chairs of Anthropoglossica, Physiognostica, Polemetica, etc. In the first instance two men absorbed the entire thirteen polysyllabic professorships. One of these two professors, a Presbyterian divine named John Monteith, occupied seven chairs and acted as President; and the other, the Rev. Father Richard, occupied the other six chairs and acted as Vice-President. The Rev. Gabriel Richard was a remarkable priest who bears the distinction of being the only Catholic clergyman ever elected to Congress, and who gave an impulse to education in the West. The act above referred to is as pedantic in its phraseology as is the title. The pedantry, however, was in the phraseology only. It provided for primary schools, high schools, academies and colleges, and their location in the counties, cities and townships. The University was to be the climax of all these lesser schools.

In 1821 the act creating the Catholepistemiad, with its "School of Sciences relative to the minds of animals, to the human mind, to spiritual existence, to the Deity and Religion," was repealed, and the University of Michigan succeeded to the rights of the old corporation.

A further change in plan was made by the State of Michigan, in 1837, and the University, with a more intelligible and practical scheme of operation, was removed to the little hamlet of Ann Arbor, where it was located on a 40 acre lot donated to the State for that purpose.

A Law Department in the University had been in contemplation from early territorial days, and was required by a mandatory provision in the act of 1837, by which the University scheme was very carefully and fully outlined. The Law Department matriculated its first students in 1859, with J. V. Campbell, T. M. Cooley and C. I. Walker as professors. The large picture of Judge Cooley, presented to the Law Department by Brother A. D. Elliot, '87, was for several years alone above the rostrum, until on Thursday, May 11, 1893, the pictures of the late Judges Campbell and Walker were presented by Justice C. B. Grant.

THOMAS MCINTYRE COOLEY, $\Delta\Phi$, 76 S. State street, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Born at Attica, New York, January 6, 1824. His father, Thomas Cooley, was a Massachusetts farmer of the Puritan blood, who settled in Attica with a large family in 1804, having invested his limited means in one hundred acres of wild timber land, which he brought under cultivation with the help of his family.

The subject of this notice secured for himself a fair academic education, taught school for three terms, and having decided to study the law, began in the office of Theron R. Strong, of Palmyra, New York, who afterwards became one of the judges of the Supreme Court of that State.

He removed to Adrian, Michigan, in 1843 where he continued his legal studies in a private law office until 1846, when he was admitted to the bar. In the meantime he had held the office of Deputy County Clerk and Register in chancery, performing practically all the official duties of his principal. For a while he edited a newspaper, The Watch Tower.

In January, 1846, he entered the practice of law in Tecumseh, Michigan, with Judge Consider A. Stacey. But he had not yet fully decided upon a permanent profession, and for the next two years was associated with Mr. J. W. Scott as a dealer in real estate, in Toledo, Ohio. He then returned to Adrian and became a partner of the Hon. F. C. Beman, an able lawyer, afterwards in Congress.

He was elected Circuit Court Commissioner, and also Recorder of Adrian, in 1850. In 1854 he was elected by the Legislature of the State to compile the public statutes of Michigan from the earliest days, a duty which he performed to general public satisfaction, classifying all the laws after a plan originating with himself and followed in the classifications made by his successors.

In 1857 he was appointed a reporter of the decisions of the Supreme Court. This office he held until 1864, publishing in the meantime eight volumes of reports.

When the Department of Law was organized in the State University, in 1859, the Jay Professorship was tendered to him and accepted. As the other professors appointed at the same time resided in the City of Detroit and were not expected to change their residence, it became necessary for him to remove to Ann Arbor, which he did before taking up the duties to which he was chosen. He was lecturer on real estate law and the law of domestic relations from the first. He lectured also on Constitutional Law, which soon, from the demands made upon his attention, became the leading subject of discussion and continued to be such while he remained in the position. He was lecturer on Constitutional Law and Medical Jurisprudence from 1861 to 1865. After resigning as Dean of the Law Department in 1884, he was appointed as Professor of History and Dean of the School of Political Science, a position which he held a number of years. He has been President of the University Alumni Association since 1886.

He was elected one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Michigan to fill a vacancy in November, 1864, and re-elected in 1869 and again in 1877 for the full terms of eight years each, making his full service upon that Court twenty-one years, during part of which time he was Chief Justice.

The honorary degree of LL. D. was conferred upon him by the University of Michigan in 1873, and in 1886 the same degree was given him by Harvard. Princeton University also, in 1896, at its Sesquicentennial celebration, honored him in company with a number of distinguished people of this and other countries with the same degree.

When the Interstate Commerce Law was to be put in operation, in 1887, at the special solicitation of President Cleveland he accepted the office of Chairman of the Commission appointed to enforce it, the President speaking of the strong public opinion which called for the appointment and stating that it was in deference to that opinion that he tendered the office. This appointment necessitated his proceeding to Washington for the performance of the duties thereby imposed upon him, and which were found to be very severe and laborious. The chairmanship in particular required great labor, which he performed for the most part with little aid from a stenographer or other clerk. This he found to be gradually undermining his health, and finally to such an extent that he was compelled to divest himself of a considerable portion of the active labor or resign the duties of the office altogether. This last resource he finally adopted and laid down his office in 1891 with the view of getting the rest which it was obvious he was in need of. He returned to Ann Arbor, where he has since resided in comparative retirement.

Judge Cooley was married in 1846 to Mary Elizabeth Horton, a woman of accomplishments and rare ability, with whom he lived happily until her death in 1890, and by whom he had six children, all living.

Judge Cooley is better known throughout the country as an author than in any other capacity. The translators of von Holst's "Constitutional History of the United States" dedicated that famous work to Judge Cooley as "one of the most eminent expounders of our Constitution." His "Constitutional Limitations," which first appeared in 1868, is the work by which he is most widely known. It has passed through numerous editions, the sixth appearing in 1890, while an edition for students has been published since. An edition of "Blackstone's Commentaries," very fully annotated, with the view of its being used in the law schools of the country, has also appeared in several editions and has been universally received with satisfaction. An edition of "Story on the Constitution" has been edited by him, fully annotated, the fourth edition in two volumes appearing in 1873. He is also author of the following works: "Taxation," written especially with reference to taxation for State purposes provided for in State constitutions, and appearing revised in 1886; "A Treatise on the Principle of the Law of Torts or Legal Wrongs of a Civil Nature," which has passed through several editions and been condensed for use in law schools, and "Constitutional Law," second edition, 1891. He edited E. B. Harrington's Michigan Chancery Reports of 1837–42, while the articles on Law in the second edition of the American Encyclopædia were also edited by him. In 1885 he published a "History of Michigan" as one of the American Commonwealth series begun by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. He further wrote an Introduction to "The American Railway" in 1887.

Inasmuch as Judge Cooley has not preserved all of his published papers and addresses, the following list is necessarily imperfect:

1. The Judicial Functions of Surveyors, 1852.

44. Biographical Sketch of Judge Campbell. Res Gestae, 1896.

The labors of Judge Cooley in law schools have by no means been limited to the University of Michigan. He delivered two full courses of lectures on the law of Municipal Government and the evils connected therewith, to the students in Johns Hopkins University in the years 1878 and 1879, and a course of lectures on the Interstate Commerce Law, in Yale University during the latter year, Also at different times, lectures on different phases of legal-political institutions, in Johns Hopkins University, that have never been published, spending considerable time in the City of Baltimore and watching the development of that institution in which he was much interested.

He was President of the American Bar Association in the year 1893–4, and wrote the usual annual address, directing his attention mainly to peculiar features of legal development going on at that time. His health at this time had become so bad that he was unable to be present at the annual meeting, and his address was read by another.

The Law Class of '95, wishing to leave a suitable memorial, decided upon a bronze bust of Judge Cooley. It was unveiled Friday, May 24, 1895, and is now in the Law Library, new building. An account of the exercises, and the speech of Hon. Wm. B. Hornblower appear in Res Gestae, 1895.

BENJAMIN CHAPTER

IN THE

OF

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1878.

THIS institution is located at Bloomington, Illinois, a city of 25,000 inhabitants. In 1850, a number of the leading citizens of the place agitated the founding of a university in their midst, to be under the control of the Methodist Church, although open to students from all religious denominations.

In the winter of 1850–1, a preparatory school was opened in the basement of the Methodist Church, with Rev. R. Andrus as Principal. In 1857, under a new Charter and a new Board of Trustees, a fine building was completed and the Faculty increased. Rev. W. H. Wilder, D. D., an alumnus of 1873, is President of the University.

The idea of establishing a Chapter at this institution originated with J. F. McNaught, KENT, '79, who had graduated from this institution in 1877, and J. T. McClure, of the Law Class of 1878. The latter, after selecting a number of classmates, drew up the form of petition for a charter. In February, 1878, the Chapter was formally instituted by T. Rinaker, KENT, '78, H. Wollman, KENT, '78, and J. F. McNaught, KENT, '79. The name of the Chapter was chosen in honor of the Dean of the Law Faculty, Judge R. M. Benjamin.

BOOTH CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW SCHOOL

OF

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

FORMERLY, UNION COLLEGE OF LAW.

ESTABLISHED 1880.

A MEETING to consider the project of founding a University in the vicinity of Chicago was held in that city on May 31, 1850. It was unanimously resolved that "the interests of Christian learning demand the immediate establishment of a University in the northwest," and a committee was thereupon appointed to secure a charter from the General Assembly of Illinois. The movement met with success and a charter was obtained, which was approved by Governor French on January 28, 1851. In 1853, 380 acres of land, lying twelve miles north of the city on the shore of Lake Michigan, was purchased for $25,000. Reserving thirty acres for the University, the remainder, together with adjoining lands, was laid out into town lots and the town named Evanston, in honor of Hon. John Evans, one of the original and most enthusiastic of the Trustees of the University. The proceeds of the lots sold at Evanston from time to time were used to meet current expenses and to erect needed buildings, all of which are substantial structures and well adapted to their various uses.

The Law School was founded September 14, 1859, there being at the time but three similar schools west of the Allegheny Mountains. It was originally organized as the Law Department of the University of Chicago, but on October 6, 1873, it passed under the joint management of Northwestern University and the University of Chicago, and assumed the name of Union College of Law. Some years ago it ceased to have any connection with the University of Chicago, but continued to retain the name which it assumed when it established relations with the two Universities. It was incorporated April 4, 1888, but, in accordance with action taken in 1891, the school is now known as the Northwestern University Law School.

The first meeting of BOOTH Chapter was held at No. 91 Washington Street, Chicago, on May 4, 1880, by G. F. White, KENT, '77, and L. C. Brooks, KENT, '80, who conducted the initiatory ceremonies. On the following Saturday, May 8, the first regular initiation took place, and the propriety of asking some of the alumni of the Law School to join the Chapter was considered. Though the Chapter flourished, as indicated by the well kept minutes of F. E. Lansing, yet it seems soon to have become disorganized. The minutes of the Chapter show that it was reorganized in Room 16 McCormick Block, Saturday, February 17, 1883, at 1:30 P. M., by T. G. Fitch, KENT, '82. Since then the chapter has flourished, though in 1886 it was run sub-rosa. The minutes record the following banquets: December 18, 1888, at the Grand Pacific Hotel, and May 29, 1889, at the University Club Rooms.

STORY CHAPTER

IN THE

COLUMBIA LAW SCHOOL

BEING THE SCHOOL OF LAW OF

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

IN THE

CITY OF NEW YORK.

ESTABLISHED 1881.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE in the City of New York is the legal designation of the institution founded in 1754 as King's College by the grant of a royal charter from George II. The title of the corporation, originally the Governors of the College of the Province of New York, is now the Trustees of Columbia College in the City of New York.

Columbia College is now both a college and a university. The college is known as the School of Arts. It offers a course of four years' duration in the liberal arts and sciences, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, which is conferred on the recommendation of the Faculty of Arts.

The University consists of the following Faculties: Law, Medicine, Mines (covering Architecture and Applied Science), Political Science, Philosophy, and Pure Science.

These Faculties have charge of all the graduate work, besides the professional instruction in law, medicine, and applied science. The Faculties are administrative divisions of the teaching body made in accordance with the natural affiliations of the subjects taught. The schools under their charge form convenient groupings of students. Each school bears the name of its Faculty, except that the school conducted by the Medical Faculty is known as the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

A course of Law was established in 1793, but the School of Law was not established until 1858.

PURPOSES OF THE SCHOOL OF LAW.

The design of the School is to prepare students for practice in any State of the Union, and in furtherance of this object the endeavor is made to give a thorough, practical, and scientific education in the principles of the law included in the following subdivisions:

First.—The COMMON LAW, in its development and as it exists to-day in the United States, together with such statutory modifications as are generally in force in the several States.

Second.—EQUITY, in its development and as it exists to-day in the United States.

Third.—The LAW of the STATE OF NEW YORK, including PRACTICE and PLEADING under the CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE, and the doctrines of substantive law peculiar to that State in regard to Trusts of Real and Personal Property, Powers, Perpetuities, Charitable Bequests, Accumulations, Limitation of Future Estates, Descent and Distribution, Mortgages and Contracts

Fourth.—The PUBLIC LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, and the principal EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, including CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, ADMINISTRATIVE LAW, and INTERNATIONAL LAW.

Fifth.—COMPARATIVE JURISPRUDENCE, ROMAN LAW and the HISTORY of EUROPEAN LAW.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The course of instruction leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws covers a minimum period of three years, in which there are offered sixty-four hours of instruction per week throughout the year. In the first year are offered fourteen hours of instruction per week; in the second year twenty-seven hours of instruction per week; in the third year twenty-three hours of instruction per week.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws is conferred only upon students who have passed satisfactory examinations in courses covering a total of forty-two hours.

To obtain this degree in three years the student must, ordinarily, take courses covering fourteen hours per week in each of the three years.

STORY Chapter was instituted on the second day of December, 1881, by Gideon S. Fuller, KENT, '81.

COOLEY CHAPTER

IN THE

ST. LOUIS LAW SCHOOL,

BEING THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF THE

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1882.

WASHINGTON University, founded in the City of St. Louis, under an Act of Incorporation by the State of Missouri, approved February 22, 1853, is intended to embrace the whole range of University studies except Theology, and to afford opportunity of complete preparation for every sphere of practical and scientific life.

By the eighth article of the Constitution, "no instruction, either sectarian or religious, or partisan in politics, shall be allowed in any department of the University; and no sectarian or partisan test shall be used in the election of professors, teachers, or other officers of the University for for any purpose whatsoever. This article shall be understood as the fundamental condition on which all endowments, of whatsoever kind, are received." The Constitution also declares the article now quoted "not subject to alteration at any time;" but to guard against all encroachments in this important particular, the Directors have obtained from the General Assembly an amendment to the charter, by which said article is incorporated in the same, and thereby placed beyond the power of any future Board of Directors. The Act of Amendment, approved February 12, 1857, declares:

"SEC. 2. No instruction either sectarian in religion, or partisan in politics, shall be allowed in any department of said University; and no sectarian or party test shall be allowed in the election of professors, teachers, or other officers of said University; or in the admission of scholars thereto, or for any purpose whatever."

On the 22d of April, 1857, the formal inauguration of Washington University took place with appropriate exercises in University Hall, and an oration delivered by the Hon. Edward Everett, in the Mercantile Library Hall. An advanced scientific class was organized at that time. The Academy had then been in operation about three years. The College and Mary Institute were organized in 1859, and the first Senior Class was graduated from the College in June, 1862.

The Law School was founded in the year 1867, by the united efforts and counsels of the Directors of Washington University and of members of the profession actually in practice or then on the bench in the City of St. Louis. It first opened to students Sept. 16, 1867, and has consequently been in successful and unbroken operation for nearly thirty years.

POMEROY CHAPTER

IN THE

HASTINGS COLLEGE OF THE LAW,

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

ESTABLISHED 1883.

THE University of California was chartered March 23, 1868, pursuant to the requirements of the State Constitution. It is the outgrowth and successor of the College of California, which was incorporated April 13, 1855. The University is located at Berkeley (ten miles from San Francisco), a site unsurpassed for natural beauty, overlooking the "Golden Gate." The charter of the University contemplated and provided for the affiliation of professional colleges. Accordingly, on March 26, 1878, the Legislature of California chartered Hastings College of the Law as the Law Department of the State University. It was named in honor of Hon. Serrannus Clinton Hastings, the first Chief Justice of the State of California, who gave a fund making the tuition free. J. N. Pomeroy, the well known author and the first professor, gave the College a high standing from the beginning. It was one of the first law colleges to have a three years' course.

The first meeting of the Chapter was held December 15, 1883, in Old Pioneer Hall. It was called to order by C. W. Helm, '84, to whom authority had been given by the Secretary of the Council, W. R. Baird, STORY, '82.

MARSHALL CHAPTER

IN THE

OF

THE COLUMBIAN UNIVERSITY.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

ESTABLISHED 1884.

BY act of Congress in 1821, a charter was given to what was then called "The Columbian College in the District of Columbia." This charter was the outcome of an effort made by Rev. Luther Rice, a Baptist clergyman, in 1819, to establish a college. In the act passed by Congress, special care was taken that no sectarian tests should be applied to its Trustees, Professors or students.

By an act of Congress approved March 3, 1873, the act to incorporate The Columbian College, in the District of Columbia, approved February 9, 1821, was so far modified as to provide, inter alia, "that said corporation shall be hereafter known and called by the name of The Columbian University, and in that name shall take, hold and manage all the estate and property now belonging to said College, or that may hereafter be conveyed, devised, or bequeathed to said corporation by its original name."

The Columbian University has no organic connection with any literary or scientific department of the Government, but its relations with them all are close and intimate. The President of the United States, the Chief Justice of the United States and the Attorney General are Honorary Overseers. Two Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States and two Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia are active members of its Law Faculty. The Directors of the Bureau of Ethnology and the United States National Museum are Trustees of the University.

Its facilities for research will appear in the following list of Libraries, numbered in the order of their proximity to the University:

1.	Library of Department of Labor,	8,000 volumes.
2.	Library of Department of Justice,	30,000 volumes.
3.	Library of Treasury Department,	22,000 volumes.
3.	Library of Light-House Board,	4,000 volumes.
4.	Library of Bureau of Statistics,	5,000 volumes.

15.	The Library of Congress,	700,000 volumes.
15.	The Library of the United States Supreme Court,	80,000 volumes.
15.	The Library of the Smithsonian Institution,	250,000 volumes.
16.	Site of the New Congressional Library.
17.	Library of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey,	12,000 volumes,
18.	Site of the old United States Naval Observatory.
	Library of the new United States Naval Observatory,	13,000 volumes.
	Library of Nautical Almanac Office,	2,000 volumes.

Washington is rich beyond any other American city, not only in the special libraries enumerated, but also in large collections, illustrative of the various arts and sciences, which have been accumulated at the national capital by the action of Congress through a long series of years. Under many of these heads Washington is not surpassed by any European capital. In view of the fact that in collecting these archives and materials it was the original purpose of the Government "to promote research and the diffusion of knowledge," the Congress of the United States has made these treasures accessible to students under the terms of the following joint resolution, approved April 12, 1892:

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the facilities for research and illustration in the following and any other governmental collections now existing or hereafter to be established in the City of Washington for the promotion of knowledge shall be accessible, under such rules and restrictions as the officers in charge of each collection may prescribe, subject to such authority as is now or may hereafter be permitted by law, to the scientific investigators and to students of any institution of higher education now incorporated or hereafter to be incorporated under the laws of Congress or of the District of Columbia."

The Law School was organized in 1826.

A charter was granted March 14, 1884, to six charter members attending the several Law Schools located in Washington City and Georgetown. One of those was Brother Charles T. Ralston, of KENT, '83, and through whose efforts the Chapter was organized. Pursuant to the wishes of the active members of the Chapter, a new charter was granted by the Fourth National Convention, restricting its membership to students of the Law School of The Columbian University.

JAY CHAPTER

IN THE

ALBANY LAW SCHOOL,

BEING THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF

UNION UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1884.

UNION University embraces the following institutions:

UNION COLLEGE,
ALBANY MEDICAL COLLEGE,
ALBANY LAW SCHOOL,
DUDLEY OBSERVATORY,
ALBANY COLLEGE OF PHARMACY.

Union College acquired by its charter granted in 1795 full university powers, but the creation of graduate institutions at Schenectady was not found practicable. Schools of Law and Medicine and also an Astronomical Observatory have long existed at Albany, only a few miles distant. The arrangement naturally suggested by these circumstances was, that the professional schools and the Observatory at Albany should be united with Union College, under the charter and Board of Trustees of the latter. This was accordingly effected by the incorporation of Union University in 1873.

The President of Union College and permanent Chancellor of Union University has the oversight of the University, each of the institutions having its resident Dean. The Dean of Union College acts in the place of the President in his absence, and also assists him in matters delegated to him by the President. The University Board of Governors is composed of permanent Trustees of Union College and of representatives of each of the other institutions embraced in Union University.

UNION COLLEGE.

Union College was incorporated by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, on the 25th day of February, 1795. It was the second college incorporated in the State, and the first north of the City of New York and west of the Hudson River. It received its name from the circumstance that several religious denominations co-operated in its organization, and was the first college in the United States which was not of a strictly denominational character. It has continued from its foundation to be the representative institution of Christian unity.

THE LAW SCHOOL.

This School is among the oldest institutions of the kind in the country, having been established in 1851, and its graduates number many of the most successful men in the profession. The School is and has been largely represented in the Executive, Judicial and Legislative departments of this and many other States, as well as of the Federal Government.

It became a part of Union University in 1873.

The petition of eleven applicants for a charter was dated April 30, 1884.

WEBSTER CHAPTER

IN THE

BOSTON LAW SCHOOL,

BEING THE

OF

BOSTON UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1885.

BOSTON University was chartered by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in the year of our Lord 1869. The three gentlemen named in the charter as the original corporators were Isaac Rich, Esq., the Hon. Lee Claflin, and the Hon. Jacob Sleeper, all of whom had held responsible positions in the government of one or more of the older New England colleges, and the last of whom had served as a State-appointed Overseer of Harvard University for a period of twelve years. The Governor of the Commonwealth who officially approved and signed the act of incorporation was a son of the second of the original incorporators.

THE UNIVERSITY COUNCIL.

The President of the University and the Deans of the several departments constitute the University Council. To it belongs, among other duties, that of securing an harmonious adjustment of all interdepartmental questions of administration.

THE UNIVERSITY SENATE.

The members of the University Council, together with all the regular professors in the different schools and colleges, constitute the University Senate. All promotions to to degrees are in the name of this body and of the corporation.

THE UNIVERSITY CONVOCATION.

This body consists of all persons who have acquired any degree or diploma of graduation in the University. Every promotion to a degree, or to the status of a graduate, is, accordingly, promotion to membership in the Convocation, with defined privileges of representation in the government of the University, and with corresponding duties.

THE COLLEGES.

The statutes of the University provide for a group of colleges, with distinct faculties and administrations. The College of Liberal Arts and the College of Music were opened almost immediately after the University was chartered; while the place of the College of Agriculture has been supplied since January, 1875, by the Massachusetts Agricultural College.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES.

This is for graduate students only. Since 1874 its regular members enjoy the privilege of free tuition in the National University at Athens, and in the Royal University at Rome. Graduates of these Universities are entitled to like immunity in Boston University.

THE PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS.

All departments of the University so organized as to presuppose on the part of a student a collegiate preparation, or its equivalent, are called schools. The three of these which are organized and administered in the interest of persons preparing for the learned professions are called the Professional Schools.

The School of Law was organized in 1872, and is located in the new Law School Building, Ashburton Place, near the business center of the city and in immediate proximity to the State House and the new Court House. The students have access not only to the libraries of the University, but also to the Public Library of the City of Boston. This is the largest library in America, numbering 500,000 volumes and 10,000 pamphlets. It is particularly rich in state papers, its collection of United States documents being in some respects more complete than any in possession of the Government itself.

HAMILTON CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW SCHOOL

OF THE

CINCINNATI COLLEGE

AND THE

LAW DEPARTMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI.

ESTABLISHED 1886.

THIS School was founded in May, 1833, by lawyers who had received their instruction in the Law School of Reeve and Gould, at Litchfield, or in the Dane Law School, at Cambridge, and who sought to introduce the advantages of that method of the study of the law into the West. It is understood to be the first Law School established west of the Allegheny Mountains. The first term began on the 7th of October, 1833.

In the year 1835 the Law School was incorporated with the Cincinnati College, a Literary and Academic institution founded in the year 1819; and from that time it has been conducted under the name of the "Law School of the Cincinnati College." As such it became permanently located in the College Buildings on Walnut Street, in Cincinnati, and has been liberally endowed from the College funds for the establishment of professorships, and for the formation of a law library adequate for the purposes of the school.

Professor Rufus King, who died on the 25th of March, 1891, after a long connection with the School, had a hereditary interest in it, for his father, Edward King, was one of its founders. This interest Rufus King manifested not only by his earnest and able work as Professor and Dean, but he has provided in his will for the future endowment of the Chair of Constitutional Law.

Under date of November 16th, 1885, the Secretary of the Council, Brother Baird, sent to the several Chapters for action a petition of eight students for a Charter, the Chapter to be known as the Matthews Chapter, in honor of Justice Stanley Matthews. The name was afterwards changed.

The first meeting of the applicants was held at the Library of the Cincinnati Law School, Dec. 1st, 1885, and was presided over by J. H. Beal, KENT, '86, who had endorsed the petition and taken an active interest in the organization of the Chapter. A second meeting was held at the same place on Dec. 7th, and a temporary Constitution and By-Laws adopted.

The Chapter was formally instituted by Brother Beal on January 23d, 1886, at the Odd Fellows Building, corner of Fourth and Home Streets. Besides the above named eight petitioners, fratres Cranston, de Stiguer, Pomerene and Turrill were initiated.

On the evening of April 13th, 1886, after the initiation of frater Hodge, the following were initiated as Honorary members: Gov. J. W. Stevenson, Hon. Rufus King, Judge M. F. Force, and Prof. H. A. Morrill.

The Chapter had its first annual Banquet and Reunion at the Burnet House, on December 19th, 1891, twenty-six members being present. On December 22d, 1892, the second Banquet was held at the Grand Hotel, while the third was arranged for December 21st, 1893. A Banquet was held March 15th, 1895, at the University Club, another on March 31st, 1896, at the Grand Hotel, and the last on April 2d, 1897, at the Burnett House.

At the Fifth National Convention the charter was amended, permitting the initiation of students in attendance at the Law Department of the University of Cincinnati.

GIBSON CHAPTER

IN THE

DEPARTMENT OF LAW

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

ESTABLISHED 1886.

A PAMPHLET, called: Proposals Relative to the Education of Youth in Pennsylvania, written in 1749 by Dr. Franklin, led to an association by certain citizens of Philadelphia, for the purpose of founding a school on the lines suggested by that wise counsellor. Over two thousand pounds, equivalent to at least forty thousand dollars, at the present time, was raised. A building, which had been erected to accommodate the thronged congregations of the celebrated Whitefield, was purchased. A Board of Trustees was constituted, to whom the school and buildings were transferred upon their assuming the original trusts, and in 1751 the Academy, consisting of an English, a Mathematical, and a Latin School, each under a Master, with subordinate tutors and ushers, was formally opened. So successful was the undertaking that in two years the Trustees applied to the Proprietaries for Charter, which was thus granted:—

Thomas Penn and Richard Penn, true and absolute proprietaries and governors in chief of the province of Pennsylvania and counties of Newcastle, Kent and Sussex, on Delaware, to all persons to whom these presents shall come, greeting: Whereas, the well-being of a society depends on the education of their youth, as well as, in great measure, the eternal welfare of every individual, by impressing on their tender minds principles of morality and religion, instructing them in the several duties they owe to the society in which they live, and one towards another, giving them the knowledge of languages, and other parts of useful learning necessary thereto, in order to render them serviceable in the several public stations to which they may be called.

* * * * * * * *

Now know ye, That we favor such pious, useful, generous, and charitable designs, hoping through the favor of Almighty God, this academy may prove a nursery of virtue and wisdom, and that it will produce men of dispositions and capacities beneficial to mankind in the various occupations of life; but more particularly suited to the infant state of North America in general, and for other causes and considerations us hereto specially moving, have granted, ordained, declared, constituted, and appointed, and by these presents we do for us, our heirs, and successors, grant, ordain, declare, constitute, and appoint, That the said Thomas Lawrence, and others, as before recited, and such others, as shall be from time to time chosen, nominated or elected in their place and stead, shall be one community, corporation and body politic, to have continuance forever, by the name of The Trustees of the Academy and Charitable School in the Province of Pennsylvania.

In witness whereof, we have caused these our letters to be made patent; in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of our sovereign lord, George the second, who now is king of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, etc., and in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three.

The Law School of the University of Pennsylvania was founded in 1790, and reorganized in 1850. The Chapter was established April 26, 1886, by T. S. Wood. The name was chosen in honor of John Bannister Gibson, 1780–1853, one of the most learned and distinguished Judges of the State of Pennsylvania.

CHOATE CHAPTER

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL.

THE LAW SCHOOL OF

HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1887.

ON Thursday, Sept. 8, 1636, The Generall Court of Massachusetts, houlden at Boston, passed a resolution giving 400 Pounds towards "a schoale or colledge," which was to be located at Newetowne. At a Generall Court held at Newetowne, the 2d day of the 3d Mo., (May) 1638, it was "ordered that Newetowne shall henceforward be called Cambrige" as a mark of affection for the English town at whose university many of the colonists had been educated. This was the official beginning of the College, but little had yet been done when the Reverend John Harvard, a young dissenting minister, came to the colony and settled at Charlestown, died, and bequeathed one-half of his property and his entire library to the school at Newtown. At a Generall Courte, houlden at Boston, the 13th of the 1st Mo. (March) it was ordered "that the colledge agreed vpon formerly to bee built at Cambridg shalbee called Harvard Colledge."

In 1780 when a Constitution was framed for the new Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Articles were introduced in connection with Harvard. In these articles Harvard is spoken of as a University. Since that time, at any event, it has been proper to speak of the place as a University. The exact date upon which the College became known as a University cannot be told. The corporate name of the University still is, as it always has been, the President and Fellows of Harvard College.

However, in order to secure uniformity, we have used the designation "Coll." in connection with all graduates prior to 1887.

In 1817 the University established the Law Department. The Harvard Law Review, founded in 1887, is published by the school, and, as will be seen on the following pages, most of its editors are members of our Order.

The idea of establishing a Chapter at this Law School originated with Frederick B. Harlow, '88. Mentioning the matter to several of his intimate classmates and securing their coöperation, a petition for a charter was presented to the Chapters. The charter was granted under date of January 22, 1887, and the Chapter instituted five days later by members of the WEBSTER Chapter.

WAITE CHAPTER

IN THE

YALE LAW SCHOOL

BEING THE

OF

YALE UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1887.

THE Collegiate School of Connecticut, subsequently named Yale College, and now called Yale University, was founded by the combined action of a few of the ministers in Connecticut, who obtained in October, 1701, a Charter from the Colony Legislature, which runs as follows:

AN ACT FOR LIBERTY TO ERECT A COLLEGIATE SCHOOL.

WHEREAS several well disposed, and Publick spirited Persons of their sincere regard to & Zeal for upholding and Propagating of the Christian Protestant Religion by a succession of Learned & Orthodox men have expressed by Petition their earnest desires that full Liberty and Priveledge be granted unto certain Undertakers for the founding, suitably endowing & ordering a Collegiate School within his Majesties Colony of Connecticut wherin Youth may be instructed in the Arts Sciences who thorough the blessing of Almighty God may be fitted for Publick employment both in Church & Civil State. To the intent therefore that all due incouragement be Given to such Pious Resolutions and that so necessary and Religious an undertakeing may be sett forward, supported and well managed:—

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor & Company of the said Colony of Connecticot in General Court now Assembled, And it is enacted & ordained by the Authority of the same that there be & hereby is full Liberty, Right and Priveledge Granted unto the Reverend Mr. James Noyes of Stonington, et al, being Reverend Ministers of the Gospel & inhabitants within ye said Colony, proposed to stand as Trustees, Partners or Undertakers for the said School, to them and their successors, TO ERECT, form, direct, order, establish, improve and att all times in all suitable wayes for the future to encourage the said School in such convenient place or Places, & in such form & manner & under such orders & Rules as to them shall seem meet & most conducive to the aforesaid end thereof, so as such Rules or Orders be not repugnant to the Laws of the Civil Government, as also to employ the moneys or any other estate which shall be Granted by this Court or otherwise Contributed to that use according to their discretion for the benefit of the said Collegiate School from time to time & att all times henceforward. Etc.

Under this Charter "The Collegiate School of Connecticut" was begun in Saybrook in November, 1701. It was removed to New Haven in October, 1716. The name "Yale College" was given to it in September, 1718, in honor of the benefactions of Elihu Yale, of London, lately Governor of the East India Company's settlement at Madras. It received tbe legal title of Yale University by act of the General Assembly of Connecticut in January, 1887. The Law Department was established in Litchfield in 1716, and was affiliated to the College in September, 1824. The founder of WAITE Chapter was B. F. James, '87, who organized a local society and petitioned for a Charter, Feb. 4, 1887. The petition receiving the unanimous affirmative votes of all the Chapters, it was formally instituted May 13, 1887, by Edward V. Reynolds, STORY, '82, and the Secretary of the Council, W. R. Baird, STORY, '82. The installation ceremonies were held at the corner of High and Wall Street, subsequent meetings at the Bowditch Building on Orange Street.

FIELD CHAPTER

IN THE

UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL;

BEING THE

DEPARTMENT OF LAW

OF

THE NEW YORK UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1888.

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

THE University of the City of New York owes its foundation and its progress until this date to two classes of citizens: first, to public spirited merchants, bankers, and professional men who have given labor and money to promote liberal learning in the metropolis upon the highest academic models. These men are types of the whole body of those who have, even until now, contributed of their time and means to this foundation. The second class of citizens who have created this University have been the faculties of teachers. The chief epochs in the history of the University are noted.

An important fact of which these epochs give no hint is the following early statute of the University, ordaining two divisions of the instruction in Arts and Science, corresponding to what are now commonly known as Graduate and Undergraduate courses. "The first shall comprise Professorships for instruction in the higher branches of Literature and Science, which shall be increased according to the progress of discovery, the wants of the community, and the financial means of the University. The second shall embrace what is usually deemed a full course of Classical, Philosophical, and Mathematical instruction, and also a complete course of English Literature." Hon. Albert Gallatin, President of the Council in 1831, said, in a public meeting, October 20, 1830, as to the chief objects of the University: "One is to complete the studies commenced in the colleges, * * * * another is to diffuse knowledge." The statute named and the view expressed were a half century in advance of the demand in America for university work proper in arts and science, a demand which is only now beginning to be made and to be met.

The University, as now existing, comprises the Council, which is by charter the corporation, and three Faculties, each in charge of its appropriate department, viz., the Faculty of Arts and Science, dating from 1832; the Faculty of Medicine, dating from 1841; the Faculty of Law, dating from 1858.

EPOCHS

IN THE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNIVERSITY.

1829. December 16—Meeting of nine gentlemen to consider "the establishment of a university in the City of New York on a liberal and extensive scale."

1830. January 6—Public meeting called by the above and others, in the rooms of the Historical Society; appointment by it of standing Committee on Subscriptions.

1830. October 15—Election, by the subscribers, of members of the Council.

1831. April 18—Act of incorporation.

UNDER THE FACULTY OF ARTS AND SCIENCE.

1831. October—Opening of college work, closely followed by the erection (1832–5) of the University Building.

1835. Invention, in the University, of the recording telegraph:

"Your Philomathean Hall, the room I occupied—that room in the University was the birthplace of the recording telegraph."—[Extract from address of Professor Morse at the Alumni Meeting of 1853.]

1839. Invention, in the University, of the application of photography to the representation of the human countenance.

1864–6. Founding of the General Endowment, in chief part by Mr. Loring Andrews.

1886. Organization of Graduate School.

1890. Academic relation established between the University and the Union Theological Seminary.

1890. Organization of the School of Pedagogy.

1890. Appointment of the Woman's Advisory Committee.

1892. Purchase of University Heights.

1894. Removal to University Heights of the University College.

1895. Gift of the Library Building and of the Hall for Students.

UNDER THE FACULTY OF LAW.

1835. Plan of Hon. B. F. Butler for the School adopted by the Council.

1858. Reorganization of the Department of Law.

1863. Founding of the Law Library by John Taylor Johnston.

1895. Opening of the new Halls at Washington Square, and establishment of morning, afternoon and evening instruction.

UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS.

In November of 1890, a movement was inaugurated to enlarge the work of the University by the securing of a new site for the University College, the School of Engineering, and the Graduate Seminary (in part). On July 1, 1891, a site was secured, extending from Sedgwick Avenue to Aqueduct Avenue, immediately south of the new University Avenue (placed on the map of the city at the request of the University), which avenue is also called East 181st Street.

The single tract included in the College Campus comprises over twenty-two acres. In addition to this is a boat-house site on the water front. Further, the University has purchased several adjoining parcels in order to restrict the neighborhood against nuisances, and to secure sites for fraternity houses, professors' residences, and the like. The general verdict of the public who visit University Heights places it second in beauty to no other University site in the world.

The Law School was reorganized in 1891, and in April, 1895, the Metropolis Law School became merged in the University School to constitute its evening department.

Upon the unanimous request of the University corporation, the University Regents of the State of New York, under the powers committed to them by the Constitution of the State, enacted a statute March 19, 1896, changing the name of the University of the City of New York to the New York University. Henceforth this legal designation should be used in all papers of any kind whatsoever relating to this University.

The petition of eight charter members was dated February 13, 1888, and after receiving the unanimous affirmative votes of all chapters, FIELD Chapter was instituted on May 4, 1888.

NOTE.—Although many of the following graduated while the institution was known as U. of C. of N. Y., we have for convenience called it N. Y. Univ., its new name.

CONKLING CHAPTER

IN THE

OF

CORNELL UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1888.

CORNELL University was incorporated by the Legislature of New York on the 27th of April, 1865, and opened on the 7th of October, 1868. The existence of the University is due to the combined wisdom and bounty of the United States, the State of New York, and Ezra Cornell. By an act of Congress, approved July 2, 1862, it was provided that 'there should be granted to the several States public lands, from the sale of which there should be established a perpetual fund for educational purposes. Meantime Ezra Cornell was dreaming of a project which he had come to formulate in the memorable words: "I would found an institution where any person can find instruction in any study." By a union of his own resources with the proceeds of the land grant, his purpose was realized. Ezra Cornell's direct donation to the University was $500,000, 200 acres of land with useful buildings, and smaller gifts for special purposes. In regard to the Board of Trustees, it was provided that "at no time shall a majority of the Board be of one religious sect, or of no religious sect."

At a meeting of the Trustees, held June 16, 1886, formal action was taken establishing a School of Law as a department of the University. The School was first opened for the admission of students September 23, 1887. A building erected for its special accommodation at a cost of over $100,000 was dedicated February 14, 1893, and was named Boardman Hall, in honor of the first Dean of the School, Douglass Boardman.

The petition of five charter members, endorsed by Professors Collin, Burdick and Hutchins, was dated March 19, 1888. On the evening of June 14, 1888, the Chapter was formally instituted by William R. Baird, STORY '82, who was assisted by Judge Boardman, Professors Baker, Collin, Cummings, Davis, Elston, Halliday, Hutchins and Smith.

TIEDEMAN CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

ESTABLISHED 1890.

THE University of Missouri was founded in 1839 by the munificence of the United States Government and the liberality of the citizens of Boone County, Missouri.

In February, 1839, the State Legislature made provision for the selection of a site for the University and elected the first Board of Curators. In June, 1839, the University was located at Columbia, Missouri. In October, 1839, the Board of Curators met and let contracts for the buildings, and on July 4, 1840, the corner stone was laid and the University dedicated.

Prof. John H. Lathrop, LL. D., was the first President, and served till 1849.

Courses of Instruction were opened in April, 1841, and the first Commencement was in 1843. During this year 74 students were enrolled.

President Lathrop was succeeded by the following:

James Shannon, 1849 to 1856.

W. W. Hudson, 1856 to ——.
B. B. Minor, —— to 1865.
J. L. Lathrop 1865 to 1866.
D. Read, 1866 to 1875.
S. S. Laws, 1875 to ——
R. H. Jesse, present President.

The University continued to grow until January, 1892, when all the buildings, except one, were destroyed by fire.

Contracts were immediately let for new buildings, and now there are nine elegant buildings, with all modern improvements.

At present 60 teachers are employed; 900 students are enrolled.

The school is divided into the following Departments:

1. Academic.
2. Normal.
3. Law.
4. Medicine.
5. Military Science and Tactics.
6. Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.
    (a) agriculture,
    (b) mechanic arts,
    (c) engineering,
    (c) mines and metallurgy.

The Law Department of the State University was established in 1872, with Judge Bliss as Dean, and Judge Boyle Gordon as Professor.

Judge Bliss was Dean until his death, which occurred in 1889. He was at one time Judge of the Supreme Court of Missouri. Judge Bliss was the author of "Bliss on Code Pleading," and "Bliss on Sovereignty," besides numerous articles contributed to legal publications.

Judge Gordon was Professor until 1881. He was succeeded by Professor C. G. Tiedeman, who resigned in 1891.

Judge Alex. Martin succeeded Judge Bliss, and still holds that position.

Judge John D. Lawson succeeded Judge Tiedeman in 1891, and is still lecturing.

From 1872 to 1887 the school only required two Professors, but in 1887 Judge James A. Yantis was secured as a Professor, and is still in the School as a lecturer.

A graduate course of one year embraces the usual subjects, and confers LL. M.

There is also a Special course which "Special" students may take, and it is, in the main, elective from the undergraduate course.

The first year's attendance was about 40, but it has increased until it is now over 130 each year.

Brother J. L. Moore was assisted in his efforts to organize a Chapter, by Brother M. T. Haw, of COOLEY, '90.

The petition of nine Charter members was dated February 18, 1890, and a Charter was granted May 26, 1890.

The Chapter was instituted by John H. Boogher, COOLEY, '90, in the Autumn of 1890, in the private rooms of Brothers Gwinn and Puckett.

MINOR CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

ESTABLISHED 1890.

FROM 1779 to 1819, Thomas Jefferson urged and advocated a system of State education, beginning with elementary schools, maintained at the public charge and free to all, and leading up to and ending with a university, in which should be taught in the highest degree every branch of knowledge,—a university that should have no fixed curriculum of study to be pursued alike by every student regardless of inclination, disposition or intended profession, but wherein, each distinct branch of knowledge should be taught in a separate school by itself, with its own special instructors. Such a university was established by Act of Assembly passed in 1819, but a delay of six years occurred in putting it into operation, during which time, the necessary buildings were erected at a cost of $350,000. The university was located near Charlottesville, Albemarle County, among the foot hills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, and on the fifth of March, 1825, received students in eight schools.

The inscription prepared by Thomas Jefferson for his tomb was, "Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence; of the statute of Virginia for religious freedom; and Father of the University of Virginia."

DILLON CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA.

ESTABLISHED 1891.

THE first official mention of the University of Minnesota is in the second message of Governor Ramsey to the Territorial Legislature of 1851. After speaking of the school lands, he adds: "As the endowment of a university will also naturally, in this connection, attract your attention, it might be proper to memorialize Congress for a grant of 100,000 acres of land, applicable and available, at a future day, for this most desirable object. The propriety of urging, at this time, the request, arises from the importance of making an early selection, with a view to secure a fair proportion of choice lands."

The memorial above proposed was passed by the Legislature on the 10th day of February, and on the 19th of the same month Congress passed an act granting two townships (about 46,000 acres) "for the use and support of a university in said Territory, and for no other use and purpose whatever." A preparatory department was opened in 1851 and continued three years. It was reorganized in 1860, 1864 and 1868, and dates its actual beginning from the last named year.

One of the first acts of the Regents under the new organization was the purchase of a farm for the agricultural college. In September, 1868, a purchase of 96 acres was made. This land was situated southeast of the campus and only one-fourth of a mile from it.

In the report made by the Board of Regents for the fiscal year ending December 22, 1868, it appears that there were then five instructors employed and 109 students in attendance, all in the preparatory department.

The year 1869 marks the organization of the University proper; the election of William W. Folwell as President; the selection of a Faculty; the beginning of university instruction (September 15, 1869), and the enlargement of the University farm by the purchase of 30 acres of land. There were in attendance during this year 13 students in the collegiate department and 217 in the Latin or preparatory school.

ORGANIZATION OF DEPARTMENTS.

The organization adopted by the Board of Regents, as required by law, was as follows:

A Department of Elementary Instruction;
A College of Science, Literature and the Arts;
A College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts;
A College or Department of Medicine;
A College or Department of Law.

The College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts was organized in two divisions, (1) that of agriculture, (2) that of mechanic arts.

The Department of Elementary Instruction was represented by the collegiate department and the so-called Latin school, introductory to it.

UNIVERSITY SUPPORT.

The Legislature of 1893 passed an act giving to the University a state tax of three-twentieths of a mill. This act went into effect the 1st day of August, 1894. This gives an income of about $95,000; fees, $53,000; U. S. Government, $38,000; University bonds and contracts, $36,500; miscellaneous sources, $13,000, making a total of $235.500.

LANDS.

The campus is situated in the City of Minneapolis, about a mile below and in full view of the Falls of St. Anthony. The grounds are about 55 acres in extent, undulating in surface, well wooded with native trees, and, by reason of the natural advantages and contour, very attractive. It is valued at $600,000.

The experimental farm, consisting of 250 acres of valuable land, is located between St. Paul and Minneapolis, adjoining the state fair grounds. It contains every variety of soil and exposure required for illustrative and experimental work. It is valued at $500,000.

The Minnetonka experimental fruit farm of 116 acres, and situated on the peninsula dividing the upper and lower lakes, is valued at $12,000.

Of the lands granted by Congress, the University still possesses about 42,000 acres. These lands are constantly increasing in value, and when sold the proceeds will go to increase the permanent endowment of the University.

LIBRARIES.

The following is a list of the libraries easily accessible to University students:

MINNEAPOLIS.

The University Library,	40,000 volumes
The Public Library,	55,000 volumes
Minneapolis Bar Association Library,	9,000 volumes
Guaranty Loan Law Library,	9,000 volumes
N. Y. Life Insurance Law Library,	8,000 volumes

ST. PAUL.

State Historical Library,	56,000 volumes
State Library,	20,000 volumes
Public Library,	32,000 volumes
Total,	229,000 volumes

The general Library of the University contains about 40,000 bound volumes, beside many thousand volumes of pamphlets, magazines, reports, etc. About 120 periodicals are received regularly by the library, not inclusive of technical magazines and newspapers in English and other languages.

In 1888 the Department of Law was formally opened.

The charter of this Chapter was dated December 25th, 1890. The Chapter was instituted in January, 1891, by Brothers Walter T. Smith, KENT '88, STORY '88, John W. Lane, COOLEY '88, of St. Paul, and A. E. Helmick, KENT '86, of Minneapolis.

DANIELS CHAPTER

IN THE

BUFFALO LAW SCHOOL

BEING THE

DEPARTMENT OF LAW

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF BUFFALO.

ESTABLISHED 1891.

THE University of Buffalo is unlike other institutions of learning in that its several departments are exclusively professional.

The fifth term of the Dental Department of the University of Buffalo recently began. The University also comprises the Buffalo College of Pharmacy, while it has also recently incorporated a School of Pedagogy, with its other professional departments.

The fifty-first regular session of the Medical Department of the University of Buffalo commenced on Monday, September 14, 1896. The medical, pharmacal, and dental departments of this University are now occupying their palatial new buildings on High Street, near the corner of Main.

The faculty of the institution feel that they have the most tasteful, comfortable and best arranged medical college edifice the United States; perhaps even in the world. The new building covers a ground area of 12,000 square feet, and has a frontage of 160 feet on High Street. It is finished entirely with terra cotta, pressed brick, iron and hard wood, than which nothing can be more attractive, and has been so tastefully designed and so well built that IT IS NOW POINTED TO AS ONE OF THE MOST ATTRACTIVE BUILDINGS OF ANY KIND OUTSIDE OF NEW YORK CITY.

The magnificent college library contains about 5,000 volumes, admirably selected for reference and study, and freely accessible to students. The library has been largely augmented by the bequest of the rich collection of the late Dr. Geo. N. Burwell, while a handsome fund has been donated for its maintenance.

Of Buffalo itself it need only to be said that it contains at present more than 365,000 inhabitants, and is constantly growing with an increasing ratio. It is the terminus of lake and canal navigation, and in wealth and importance even now rivals the largest business centers in the country. It is entered by more than twenty converging lines of railroad, and has within its limits more than 700 miles of trackage.

The Buffalo Law School was founded in the year 1887, by members of the Judiciary and Bar of Buffalo.

The Buffalo Law School is located on the ninth floor of the Ellicott Square, which is said to be the largest, finest and most complete office-building in America.

Ellicott Square covers an entire block in the business center of the city, and is in the close vicinity of the City and County Hall and the District Law Library. The Instructors of the School are either judges or lawyers in active practice, and many of the students enter law offices for clerical experience, hence it is necessary to have the school within a short distance of the Court House and the law offices.

The lecture-room itself is a large room, elegantly furnished, well lighted and ventilated. It is in a quiet part of the building, and in all of its appointments is admirably adapted for law-school work.

Immediately adjoining the lecture-room is the Bangs' Law Library, which contains a full selection of reports and text-books, and to which the students have free access.

The petition of eleven Charter members was dated December 13, 1890. A Charter was granted under date of April 16, 1891. The Chapter was instituted in April, 1891, by Irving McDowell, JAY, '87, Daniel V. Murphy, CONKLING, '91, and Arthur R. Pennell, WAITE, '89.

CHASE CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON.

ESTABLISHED 1891.

THE University of Oregon, by an act of the State Legislature, was founded and located at Eugene in 1872, and it was opened for the reception of students and giving instruction in 1876.

The management of its affairs is placed in a Board of Regents, appointed for a term of twelve years by the Governor of the State and confirmed by the State Senate. The Board of Regents confers such degrees and grants such diplomas as other universities are wont to confer and grant.

The permanent endowment of the University consists of $100,000, realized from the sale of the land granted to the State by the General Government for the purpose of establishing a university, and a fund of $50,000 generously donated the University by Henry Villard, and an annual appropriation from the State.

The University is located at Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, 125 miles south of Portland, on the Southern Pacific Railroad. Eugene is the county seat of Lane County, has 4,000 inhabitants and is situated amidst scenery of much natural beauty. The University campus lies southeast of Eugene, about one mile from the city postoffice, and contains 18 acres of land.

The Law Department was organized in 1884 in the City of Portland, a metropolis which offers great advantages to students of law, having an intelligent bar and excellent libraries, and affording an easy access to the courts.

The petition of 12 charter members of CHASE Chapter for admission to PHI DELTA PHI was dated May 1, 1890. It was endorsed by members of the fraternity then living in Portland, Rufus I. Eaton, KENT '83; William M. Cake, HAMILTON '86, and Benjamin B. Beekman, WAITE '88, who aided in the organization of the Chapter. POMEROY Chapter, in the Hastings Law School at San Francisco, lent its assistance, and to it the thanks of CHASE Chapter are in a great measure due for its success in securing a charter. Letters of recommendation were sent by Hon. Wm. W. Thayer, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Oregon; Hon. George H. Williams, ex-Attorney General of the United States; Hon. Jas. K. Kelly, ex-United States Senator, and Hon. Charles B. Bellinger, present United States District Judge for the District of Oregon. The charter was granted under date of May 1, 1891, whereupon the Chapter was formally instituted by Benjamin B. Beekman, WAITE '87.

HARLAN CHAPTER

IN THE

COLLEGE OF LAW

OF

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

ESTABLISHED 1891.

THE University of Wisconsin, located on the South bank of Lake Mendota, a sheet of water about four miles in width and six miles in length, was incorporated by the Territorial Legislature in 1838. Congress made it a land grant of 46080 acres, and in 1859, 46080 acres more. In 1848 the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin made provision for the establishment of a State University. The years prior to 1866 were years of trial and adversity. At that time it had graduated only 58 students and had not received a dollar from the State or City. From its lands only $500,000 were realized; whereas, if sold under less necessitous circumstances they would have yielded several million. In 1866 it was reorganized by act of the Legislature, and fell heir to the "Agricultural Land Grant," under the act passed by Congress July 2, 1862, covering no less than 240,000 acres. In 1867, the first appropriation of about $7,000 a year was made by the State. Since that date the State has made repeated and large appropriations of money for the construction of buildings and for providing apparatus, and also for meeting the ordinary expenses of the institution.

It is the general policy of the institution to foster the higher educational interests of the State, broadly and generously interpreted. It is its aim to make ample provision for the demands of advanced scholarship in as many lines as its means will permit. By prescribing a large portion of the studies of the regular courses in the earlier years, and by leaving a large number in the later portion to the selection of the student, it endeavors to give a wise measure of direction and at the same time leave sufficient room for choice to encourage individual adaptation and special development.

The University strenuously avoids all that is sectarian or partisan; but it endeavors to extend its sympathy and influence to whatever contributes to good citizenship and high character.

The University recognizes no distinction of race, color, or sex. All who conform to its intellectual and moral requirements are equally entitled to its privileges.

The government of the institution rests upon the inherent obligations of students to the University and to the State. The University is maintained at the public expense for the public good. Those who participate in its benefits are expected, as a matter of honor, not only to fulfill the obligations of loyal members of the institution, of the community, and of the commonwealth, but actively to aid in promoting their intellectual and moral interests. Every student owes to the public a full equivalent for its expenditure in his behalf, in the form of superior usefulness to it, both while in the institution and afterwards. Students therefore cannot claim any exemption from the duties of good citizens and of loyal members of the community and of the University; on the contrary, they are under peculiar obligations loyally to fulfill every duty. As members of the institution, they are held responsible for regular attendance and the proper performance of their duties. The interests of faithful students and the well-being of the University demand that those who do not conform to these manifest obligations should withdraw from the institution or be excluded. As members of the community, students are amenable to the law; and, if guilty of its infraction, are liable to a termination of their relations with the University. The University recognizes its civic relations and rests its administration upon civic obligations.

The libraries of the University are the General Library, the Law Library, the Agricultural Library, and the Woodman Astronomical Library. They contain in the aggregate over 44,000 volumes and 10,500 unbound pamphlets.

The General University Library, including the department libraries catalogued herewith, contains over 39,000 volumes and 8,500 unbound pamphlets. More than 375 periodicals are regularly received. The catalogue is the usual dictionary card catalogue of authors, subjects, and titles, in one alphabetical arrangement. Subject to certain restrictions, books may be drawn by all members of the University. For consultation the library is open twelve hours daily during the academic year except on Sundays and legal holidays.

Through the kindness of Prof. Edward T. Owen, the General Library contains on deposit the Owen library of works on French language and literature, numbering 900 volumes. Special appropriations in recent years have rendered the library especially strong in the lines of economic and political science, and in classical philology.

At the opening of the college year a course of lectures on the library and methods in library work is given to new students by the University Librarian.

The College of Law has a special library of 3,000 volumes; and the Washburn Observatory is provided with the Woodman Astronomical Library, now containing 2,200 books and 1,800 pamphlets. Students also have free access to the State Law Library, comprising about 26,000 volumes, and by special arrangements are enabled to take out books from the free library of the City of Madison. This is a well-selected collection of over 14,000 volumes.

The library of the State Historical Society contains about 100,000 volumes and 80,000 pamphlets. It is exceptionally rich in manuscript and other material for the study of the history of the Mississippi valley. The collections of the late Dr. Lyman C. Draper are included in the library. Its files of newspapers and periodicals are among the most complete in the United States. There are over 5,000 volumes of bound newspapers published outside of Wisconsin, and the files cover, with but few breaks, the period from the middle of the seventeenth century to the present. There is an excellent collection of United States government documents, and the material for the study of American local history, Western travel, the Revolution, Slavery, and the Civil War, is unusually abundant. In English history the library possesses the Calendars of the State papers, the Rolls Series, and other important collections, including works on local history. The Tank collection (Dutch) offers facilities for the study of the Netherlands. The library of the Historical Society is accessible to all students of the University, and thus affords exceptional facilities for the prosecution of advanced historical work. The Historical Seminary of the University has been generously granted special facilities in the rooms of the library. The Historical, State, University, and City libraries afford duplicate copies of historical material most in use, and to a large extent supplement one another.

These library privileges are unsurpassed in the interior, and equalled by very few institutions in the country.

The College of Law was established in 1868. Its new building, located on the campus, within the limits of the City of Madison, is a stately structure, elegant in design and finish, built of the brown sand-stone of Lake Superior, at a cost of over $86,000. The petition of eleven charter members was dated February 19, 1891. The Chapter was instituted May 29, 1891, by John F. Harper, CHOATE, '90.

SWAN CHAPTER

IN THE

SCHOOL OF LAW

OF THE

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1893.

UNDER an act of Congress passed July 2, 1862, the State of Ohio received from the United States a large grant of the public lands for the purpose of establishing a "college, where the leading objects shall be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, in such a manner as the Legislatures of the States may respectively prescribe, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions of life." Under this Agricultural Land Grant act of 1862, the State of Ohio received 630,000 acres of public land from the United States, and, in accordance with the intention of the act, founded this University. The original endowment has been supplemented, and the objects of the University promoted, by a permanent annual grant from the United States under an act of 1890; by special appropriations of the General Assembly, and lastly, in 1891, by a permanent annnal grant from the State. The University is situated within the corporate limits of the City of Columbus and about three miles from the State Capitol. It possesses about 330 acres of land, most of which is devoted to agricultural and horticultural purposes.

LIBRARIES.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

The University Library is located in Orton Hall, the east end of that building having been designed for its use until a separate building can be erected. Small collections of books specially needed in connection with laboratory and class-room work have been transferred from this room to the different departments.

With the exception of the books of law and general reference books, the library is a circulating one for officers and students of the University.

The collection of law books numbers about 2,500 and consists of the Noble Law Library (presented by the widow of the late Henry C. Noble, of Columbus); the Emerson McMillin Law Library; and two sets of the Ohio State Reports, presented by the Supreme Court of Ohio.

The Emerson McMillin Law Library was added during the last year. Mr. Emerson McMillin generously placed in the hands of the Faculty of the School of Law $3,000 to be expended in purchasing books for the library of the school. This sum was carefully expended by the Faculty and has secured to the University a working law library of great usefulness.

STATE LIBRARIES.

The State Library, which occupies a large room in the State House, is open to all students as a reference library six days in the week. It contains about 65,000 volumes.

The State Law Library is the largest and most complete law library in the State. It consists of about 15,000 volumes and contains complete sets of the English, Scotch, Irish, Canadian, United States and State reports, statutes and digests. The important legal periodicals are on file.

CITY LIBRARIES.

The students of the University, as residents of Columbus, have access to the City Library and the Public School Library under the usual regulations. The City Library in the City Hall contains about 23,000 volumes.

The Public School Library has a convenient new building on Town Street. It contains about 27,000 volumes, which are classified according to the Dewey system.

The School of Law, established in 1891, is provided with lecture-rooms and library accommodations in Orton Hall, recently completed at a cost of about $102,000.

The petition of 11 charter members bore date of January 19, 1893, and was endorsed by the Scriptors of KENT and HAMILTON Chapters, Governor McKinley, the professors in the School of Law, and by A. W. Sharp, of HAMILTON '92, who had actively assisted the petitioners.

The charter was issued by the Secretary of the Council on April 19, 1893, and on April 27 the Chapter was formally instituted by Brothers C. J. Baer, HAMILTON '93; F. A. Davis, KENT '81; J. H. Dyer, WEBSTER '90; B. F. James, WAITE '87; W. B. Kelley, HAMILTON '94; A. W. Sharp, HAMILTON '92; C. M. Voorhees, KENT '93, and H. P. Williamson, HAMILTON '93.

At the inaugural banquet at the Hotel Chittenden there were present the charter members, two seniors, three juniors, the fratres above mentioned, members of the Faculty, Captain Robert Smith, son-in-law of Judge Joseph R. Swan, and R. H. Platt, grandson-in-law of the Judge.

The first annual banquet was held at Smith's, May 11, 1894; the second at the Neil House, May 17, 1895, and the third at Hotel Chittenden, May 15, 1896.

McCLAIN CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF THE

STATE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA.

ESTABLISHED 1893.

IN the year 1840, the Congress of the United States passed an act setting apart two townships for the use and support of a University within the Territory of Iowa, whenever it should become a State. The Legislature of the State of Iowa passed in 1847 an act to locate and establish a State University; but for more than a decade thereafter nothing was done towards carrying out the intent of the act. The gift of Congress was accepted, as set forth in the Constitution of the State, and the policy reaffirmed in the amended Constitution of 1857. In the latter document it is moreover specifically stated that "the General Assembly shall encourage by all suitable means the promotion of intellectual, scientific, moral, and agricultural improvement."

In 1858 its location at Iowa City was determined, and steps taken which ended in its being opened for students on September 19, 1860. It began with three departments, Preparatory, Normal and Collegiate.

The Law School in operation at Des Moines became a part of the University in 1868, and was transferred to Iowa City. The other departments were established later.

The Law Department has the exclusive occupancy of the second floor of the central, or stone building, on the campus, which was erected for and used as the Capitol Building before the removal of the capitol of the State to Des Moines. The rooms on this floor are those formerly occupied as legislative chambers.

In commodious quarters on the same floor with the lecture-room is the Law Library of eight thousand five hundred volumes, to which the students have personal access. This library contains full series of the reports of the Supreme Court of the United States and of the courts of last resort of thirty-three States, including all those whose reports are most frequently referred to; also the American Decisions, the American Reports, and American State Reports, a collection of English Reports, which, with additions lately made, is almost complete, full series of the Reporter System, and a large collection of the latest and best law text-books.

The University library, containing 30,000 volumes, is open to the students of this Department, as well as those of the other departments of the University.

A valuable collection of twelve hundred volumes relating principally to the Civil Law and the History of the Common Law has been given to the University. It was the collection of Brother William G. Hammond, of COOLEY Chapter, who was the first Chancellor of the Law Department, and was presented by his widow, to be kept in the Law Library for the use of the students of the Department and others interested in such subjects.

The printed petition (12 pp.) of seventeen Charter members, bore date of May 1, 1893, and included letters of endorsement from CHOATE, TIEDEMAN and DILLON Chapters, Dr. Hammond, of COOLEY Chapter, Dr. Rogers, of KENT Chapter, Judge Dillon, of DILLON Chapter, Brothers Bloom, BOOTH, '87, Stewart, KENT, '87, Walker, KENT, '81, Governor Boies, Justices Robinson, Kinne, and Wright, Regent Knoepfler, Prof. Wambaugh of Harvard Law School, Chancellor McClain, and Professors Hayes, Wade and Rohbach.

At the Third National Convention of our Order, the petition was endorsed on July 18, 1893, as follows:

"Resolved, That the petition from the University of Iowa, when placed before the Chapters for action, be and is hereby recommended to their favorable consideration."

The correspondence on behalf of the petitioners, with the newly elected Secretary of the Council, was conducted by Prof. Rohbach.

The following account of the installation of this Chapter is taken from one of the city papers:

"Last Saturday, December 16, a party of Senior Laws took an advanced step in their University life, and introduced to State University of Iowa circles a new fraternity, the PHI DELTA PHI. This is an exclusively legal fraternity, having large and flourishing Chapters in the twenty-three largest law schools of the country. It resembles the Greek letter fraternities in little else besides name, the secrecy features being much more restricted and membership in the two does not conflict. The social feature is not neglected, but the main practical advantage is in the exchange of business among its alumni.

"The Chapter here is named in honor of the respected Chancellor of the Law Department, 'McCLAIN Chapter.' Mr. George A. Katzenberger, Secretary of the Grand Council, arrived in the city Saturday morning and officiated in the organizing and initiating ceremonies. In these he was assisted by the Professors and other honorary members of the Chapter.

"After the business meeting the members partook of a plenteous banquet at the St. James Hotel. After the cigars were lighted Chancellor McClain presided as toast-master over the most enjoyable part of the evening. The Chancellor thanked Secretary Katzenberger for the interest he had taken in organizing the Chapter, and congratulated the members on what he considered an honor to the Law Department no less than to the individual members, and an indication of the progress made during its first quarter-centennial just ended.

"R. E. Leach, the newly-elected President of the Chapter, was called to respond to the first toast, on 'University Life.' The speaker grew eloquent on the grandeur of the Law Department, 'honored in the past, eminent in the present, and with the brightest prospect for the future.'

"Following the sweet strains of 'The Star of the PHI DELTA PHI,' Wm. F. Kopp humorously and brilliantly discoursed on the eminent qualifications, both individual and collective, of 'The McCLAIN Chapter,' and prophesied its brilliant future, especially 'if there is anything in a name.'

"After more music, C. D. Muxon evoked much laughter and applause by the scientific and legal manner in which he handled the subject, 'The Law Class of '94.'

"Another melody followed and then Secretary Katzenberger spoke enthusiastically and encouragingly of the past history, present influence and aims of the fraternity. He said that the fraternity stands for 'the highest standard of professional culture and ethics.'

"Professors Hayes and Rohbach then responded to calls for speeches, and a fraternity song appropriately closed the first meeting of 'The McCLAIN Chapter of PHI DELTA PHI.'"

LINCOLN CHAPTER

IN THE

COLLEGE OF LAW

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA.

ESTABLISHED 1895.

THE University of Nebraska was originally founded by an act of the Legislature known as "An Act to establish the University of Nebraska," which took effect February 15, 1869. As organized, it first opened its doors on September 7, 1871. By amendment of the original act of 1869, a tax is provided for the support of the University of three-eights of a mill per dollar upon the grand assessment roll of the State. To be added to this are incomes from land leases and sales under the Land Grant act of Congress of 1862, for the benefit of the Industrial College, and under the Enabling act reserving 72 sections of land for the State University. By the act of Congress of July 2, 1862, the Industrial College of the University became possessed of 90,000 acres of land; by the Enabling act, admitting the State into the Union, 72 sections of land were reserved for the endowment of the University, making a total of 136,080 acres of endowment lands.

The University Library, which is mainly a reference library, occupies the second floor of the Library Building. This building is fire proof, is abundantly lighted by natural and electric light, and is heated and ventilated by a mechanical system. The reading room affords ample space for 150 readers, while the book room accommodates 50 more. There are in the Library about 32,000 bound volumes, 22,000 of which are in the main collection, the remainder in departmental and seminary libraries. All persons, whether connected with the University or not, have free access to the books. The Library is classified according to the Dewey decimal system, and the card catalogue, which is completed nearly to date, affords an index of authors, titles and subjects, in dictionary order.

Students have access also to the library of the State Historical Society, located in the building of the University Library. The books and pamphlets of this collection number about 10,000. The Lincoln Park Library is free to all, both for home use and for reference. This consists of about 12,000 volumes. The State Library, which is especially strong in its law collection, contains 33,000 volumes and is free for reference.

The Law Department was organized in 1891.

The petition of 12 Charter Members, bearing date of March 1, 1895, was endorsed by the Scriptors of COOLEY, DILLON, MCCLAIN and TIEDEMAN Chapters, Governor Holcomb, Justices and Judges of Nebraska, Senator Manderson, Hon. W. J. Bryan, Chancellor Canfield, Dean Reese, and resident alumni of KENT, BENJAMIN, BOOTH, COOLEY and JAY Chapters. The charter was granted on Decoration Day, 1895, and the Chapter was formally instituted June 10, by Brothers J. Adams, KENT '93; J. B. Cunningham, HAMILTON '87; H. Kennedy, Jr., COOLEY '91; H. A. Reese, KENT '93; C. A. Robbins, BOOTH '85, and J. C. Watson, KENT '73. The initiatory ceremonies took place at the Halter Block, and the banquet followed at the Lindell Hotel. An alumni dinner to the Honorary Members was held at the Lincoln Hotel, March 27, 1896.

OSGOODE CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW SCHOOL

OF

UPPER CANADA

AT

TORONTO.

ESTABLISHED 1896.

THE history of the Law School of Osgoode Hall is the history of the Law Society of Upper Canada. Its records date back to the founding of the Province of Upper Canada in 1791, when Quebec was divided into the two provinces of Upper and Lower Canada. The Act of 31, George III., by which this was accomplished, provided that in the Upper Province, in all matters of controversy or civil rights, resort should be had to the laws of England. To provide the colonists with advocates skilled in the English laws, the Legislature authorized the Governor to appoint persons to act in that capacity. In July, 1797, a further Act was passed by which any persons practicing law at the bar of any of His Majesty's Courts in the Province were authorized to form themselves into a society to be called "The Law Society of Upper Canada," as well for the purpose of establishing order among themselves as for the purpose of securing to the Province and to the profession a learned an honorable body to assist their fellow-students as occasions might require, and maintain the Constitution of the said Province.

In pursuance of the Act a meeting of barristers took place at Newark (now Niagara), when the Society was founded on a broad and permanent basis. Even in their place of meeting the traditions of the profession at Westminster were manifested, for we are told that "in default of Inns of Court they met at Wilson's tavern."

The rules of the Society prescribe that no person attending in the Chambers of a barrister as a student-at-law, during his attendance, and no person bound by Articles of Clerkship to any Solicitor, during the term of service mentioned in such Articles, shall hold any other office of emolument or engage in any other occupation whatever.

Osgoode Hall, the home of the Society, and the seat of the Law School, is situated in the midst of spacious lawns, in the central part of the City of Toronto. The building was was begun in 1820, and is named after Lord Chief Justice Sir William Osgoode, the first Chief Justice of Upper Canada. The building is in the Italian Renaissance style of architecture, of the Palladian type, and is the purest specimen of that style in Canada. The interior, finished in Caen stone and oak, is richly decorated with columns, balustrades and mouldings of singular purity. Upon the library, which occupies the main portion of the front, the architect has lavished his best efforts. Sixteen columns of the Corinthian order support the heavy domed and vaulted roof, itself overspread with delicate carving. These columns divide the room into bays, in which are stored some twenty-eight thousand volumes, the main portion of the room being reserved for reading purposes.

The project of founding a fraternity among the law students of Toronto was first started as early as 1892, when letters were written by members of the Osgoode Legal Club to friends in the United States for information regarding established Legal Fraternities. Nothing much was done, however, until March 22, 1894, when the petitioners adopted the preamble of the Constitution of this order. The Constitution of the fraternity having been amended at the Fourth National Convention, the petition of sixteen charter members bearing date of March 15, 1895, was passed upon by the Chapters, and the Club was admitted by a unanimous vote of the Chapters and the Council. The Charter bore date of December 23, 1895, and on January 4, 1896, the petitioners were initiated into the Order by a Committee consisting of Brothers E. J. Bowen, W. H. Carroll, W. P. Daniels and E. C. Hard, all of the Class of 1896, of DANIELS Chapter. The Chapter headquarters were originally at 71 Bay Street, but in October, 1896, the property at Number 10 Saint Patrick Street was leased, and the members now live in a quiet residential part of the city. The first annual banquet was held December 10, 1896, nineteen members being in attendance.

FULLER CHAPTER

IN THE

CHICAGO COLLEGE OF LAW,

BEING THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF

LAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY.

ESTABLISHED 1896.

LAKE FOREST University was planned and its location selected by Presbyterians of Chicago and Waukegan in the year 1855. In February of 1856 "The Lake Forest Association" was formed, and purchased 2,500 acres of land where Lake Forest now stands. Half of this land was permanently set apart as Association property, and the plat of the town was recorded July 23, 1857. Every alternate lot was assigned as an endowment for a university, and 62 acres were set apart as inalienable campus. The institution was chartered by the State Legislature, February 13, 1857, as Lind University, subject to the control of the Synod of Peoria and its ecclesiastical successors. In the fall of 1858 the first building was erected and the academy begun. By an act approved February 16, 1865, the Legislature changed the name to Lake Forest University.

Lake Forest is a suburb of Chicago, situated on the shore of Lake Michigan, 28 miles north of the city. Its site occupies the highest elevation of land along the lake between Chicago and Milwaukee. The town was originally laid out as a park, and is entirely devoted to residences and the University buildings. The charter prohibits the sale of all intoxicating drinks.

COLLEGE BUILDINGS.

Besides the residences provided for college officers, and student rooms and clubs, four buildings are in use for college work: (1) College Dormitory, used for offices, library, reading-room, chapel, society halls, and the departments of French, Zoölogy, Physics and Chemistry; (2) North Hall, used for the departments of Philosophy, Biblical Literature, Mathematics, Political and Social Science, and English, and the Herbarium; (3) Durand Art Institute, the gift of Mr. Henry C. Durand, containing a large hall for public exercises, and rooms for the departments of Economics, German, Greek, Latin, and Botany; (4) The Gymnasium, a fine building thoroughly adapted to its purpose.

COLLEGE LIBRARY.

The Library contains some 13,000 volumes, mostly standard literature. The scientific books are kept in the rooms and in charge of the several professors of the scientific departments. A large portion of the classical books, in which the library is especially rich, is kept in the room of the Classical Seminar. The remainder of the collection, with the exception of a few books in class-room libraries, is in the general library. This is open to all the college and academy officers and students at stated hours during the day and on certain evenings. The books are classified and shelved on a simple subject-author system, and a complete finding-list is kept up for reference.

The Chicago College of Law was organized in 1887, by the late Hon. Jos. M. Bailey, Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois, assisted by the Hon. Thos. A. Moran, ex-Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and also ex-Justice of the Appellate Court. In October, 1889, it became the Law Department of the above named University.

The Melville W. Fuller Law Club was organized in the autumn of 1895, among students who were congenial and whose aims were similar.

During the months of October and November they were assisted in the preparation of a petition for a charter by Brother W. S. Holden, KENT '90. Under date of December 5, 1895, Brother Chas. W. Lucas submitted to the Council the draft of a petition signed by 19 applicants. It ought to be stated here that the final success of the petition was in a large measure due to the tireless zeal of Brother Lucas.

The petition was the finest of its kind ever presented to the Chapters for action. Besides containing short biographies of the members of the Faculty, it was embellished by a group photograph of the petitioners. It contained letters of endorsement from the members of the Faculty, Chief Justice Fuller, Judges of the Supreme, Appellate, Superior, Circuit and County Courts, as well as the approval of numerous resident alumni of KENT, BOOTH, STORY, CHOATE and HARLAN Chapters. Owing to misapprehension on the part of several Chapters, the granting of a charter was impossible until May 2, 1896. On May 12 the Chapter was formally instituted at Kinsley's, under the auspices of the Chicago Alumnus Chapter. The initiatory ceremonies were conducted by the active members of BOOTH Chapter, the President of the Council formally installing the Chapter.

The first banquet, held jointly with the Booth Chapter and the Chicago Alumnus Chapter, occurred on Monday, June 14, 1897, at the Union League Club, five honorary members being then initiated.

MILLER CHAPTER

IN THE

LAW DEPARTMENT

OF

LELAND STANFORD JUNIOR UNIVERSITY

ESTABLISHED, 1897.

FOUNDATION.

THE founding at Palo Alto of "a university for both sexes, with colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, galleries of art, and all other things necessary and appropriate to a university of high degree," was determined upon by the Honorable Leland Stanford and Jane Lathrop Stanford in 1884. In March of the year following the legislature of California passed an Act providing for the administration of trust funds in connection with institutions of learning. November 14, 1885, the Grant of Endowment was publicly made, in accordance with this Act, and on the same day the Board of Trustees held its first meeting, in San Francisco.

NAME AND PURPOSE.

The idea of the University, in the words of its founders, "came directly and largely from our son and only child, Leland; and in the belief that had he been spared to advise as to the disposition of our estate, he would have desired the devotion of a large portion thereof to this purpose, we will that for all time to come the institution hereby founded shall bear his name, and shall be known as the Leland Stanford Junior University." The object of the University, as stated in its Charter, is "to qualify students for personal success and direct usefulness in life," and its purposes, "to promote the public welfare by exercising an influence in behalf of humanity and civilization, teaching the blessings of liberty regulated by law, and inculcating love and reverence for the great principles of government as derived from the inalienable rights of men to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

LOCATION.

The University is located on the Palo Alto estate in the Santa Clara Valley, thirty-three miles southeast of San Francisco, on the Coast Division of the Southern Pacific Railway. The estate consists of eight thousand four hundred acres, partly lowland and partly rising into the foothills of the Sierra Morena. On the grounds are the residence of the founders and an extensive arboretum, containing a great variety of shrubs and trees. The bay of San Francisco lies about three miles east of the University buildings, and across the bay the Monte Diablo range rises to the height of over four thousand feet. The Lick Observatory, crowning Mount Hamilton, the highest of the range, is plainly visible. To the southwest, between the valley and the ocean, is the heavily wooded Santa Cruz range, two thousand to four thousand feet in height.

The Santa Clara Valley is one of the most attractive portions of the State in climate, in natural beauty, and in fertility and adaptiveness of its soil to all the varied fruits of California. The characteristics of the climate are its evenness of temperature, its pure and bracing air, and its freedom alike from the fogs and harsh winds of the coast and from the oppressive summer heat of the interior valleys. The rainfall of about twenty inches is chiefly confined to the months from December to April.

ENDOWMENT.

The property conveyed to the University, in addition to the Palo Alto estate, consists of the Vina estate in Tehama county, of fifty-nine thousand acres, of which about four thousand acres are planted in vines, and the Gridley Ranch, in Butte county, of twenty-two thousand acres, devoted mainly to the raising of wheat. By the will of Mr. Stanford the University received two and a half million dollars, and this bequest became available in 1896.

BUILDINGS.

Early in 1886 work was commenced on the University buildings, and the corner-stone laid May 14, the nineteenth anniversary of the birth of Leland Stanford, Jr. During the next six years, there were erected the central quadrangle and dormitories, workshops, power-houses, laboratories, and museums, sufficient for the equipment of a great University.

In arranging the buildings the plan has been to conform them to the peculiar climatic conditions of California, and to provide for indefinite expansion without crowding or distortion. A series of quadrangles, to be erected as the needs of the University demand, will furnish facilities for all general University work. The buildings are of buff sandstone, somewhat varied in color. The stonework is of broken ashlar with rough rock face, and the roofs are covered with red tile. The architectural motif is to be found in the old Spanish Missions of California. Inside the quadrangle, the long arcade (586 feet long) supported on low columns, the perspective of arches, the great beds of palms and flowers, the dark blue mountains appearing above the roofs not unlike them in contour, and the Italian sky over all, make a picture unique and not to be forgotten. On October 1, 1891, the University was formally opened, with an enrollment that reached, before the year closed, 500 students.

LIBRARIES.

One building of the quadrangle is devoted exclusively to the library. It has a shelving capacity of forty thousand volumes, and the reading-room will accommodate one hundred and twenty-five persons. The library now numbers thirty-five thousand volumes and fifteen thousand pamphlets. The most notable gifts to the library have been the Hopkins Railway Library of 7,000 volumes, the Hildebrand Philological Library of 15,000 volumes, purchased at Leipzig, and $600,000, donated by Thomas W. Stanford, of Melbourne, Australia, as a permanent endowment of the library. In addition to the University library, various large collections within reach can be made available to a greater or less extent. The Free Public, Mechanics' Institute, Mercantile, and other libraries in San Francisco, can be used for reference.

The first letter with reference to the founding of a Chapter of our Order at this University was written May 13, 1895, by ex-President Harrison. The second letter was written by Mr. O. V. Eaton, one of the Charter members, shortly thereafter. Acting upon the advice given by the Secretary of the Council, the prospective petitioners formed themselves into a literary organization, known as the Miller Law Club. Under date of February 20, 1896, Mr. B. F. Bledsoe, also one of the Charter members, informed the Council of the intention of the members of said Law Club to petition for a Charter. A printed notice, bearing date of May 1st, and signed by fifteen prospective applicants, informed the Fraternity that at the beginning of the College year of 1896–7 the formal petition would be presented for action. In September, 1896, a sufficient number of copies of the eighteen-page petition was received by the Council and distributed among the Chapters. The petition included letters of endorsement from David S. Jordan, President of the University, Professor Nathan Abbott, of KENT and BOOTH Chapters, ex-President Harrison, Professor Woodruff, Professor John Norton Pomeroy, of STORY Chapter, '91, Charles W. Slack, Dean of the Hastings College of the Law, and Honorary member of POMEROY Chapter, Justice Myrick, and others.

The Fifth National Convention of our Order, on Tuesday, December 29, 1896, endorsed the petition in the following words, "Resolved, That this Convention endorses the petition of the Miller Law Club of the Leland Stanford, Junior, University, and recommends the same to the favorable consideration of the Chapters."

The Charter was granted under date of March 25, 1897, and the active members of POMEROY Chapter were requested to conduct the installation ceremonies. On Saturday, April 10, Brothers Chamberlain, Deahl, Gaylord, Jones, Larue, Laughlin, Lewis, Macbeth, Page, Turner, Treadwell, and Walthall, active members of POMEROY Chapter, and Brother Bell, of POMEROY, '91, visited Palo Alto, for the purpose of instituting the MILLER Chapter. They were assisted by Brothers Beasly, KENT, '92, Bump, HARLAN, '96, and KENT, '96, and Henderson, KENT, '95.

The installation ceremonies took place in the evening, after the visiting Brothers had been shown the buildings and the surrounding country. After partaking of an elaborate banquet, the following toasts were responded to.

GREEN CHAPTER

IN THE

SCHOOL OF LAW

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS.

ESTABLISHED, 1897.

BY AN act of Congress, approved January 29, 1861, 72 sections of land were set apart and reserved for the use and support of a State university in Kansas. The State of Kansas accepted this grant of land, and in an act approved March 1, 1864, provided as follows:

SECTION 1. There shall be established in this State, at or near the City of Lawrence, in the County of Douglas, on the ground secured for that purpose pursuant to the act entitled "An act to locate the State University," passed February 20, 1863, an institution of learning, under the name of The University of Kansas.

SEC. 2. The object of the University shall be to provide the inhabitants of this State with the means of acquiring a thorough knowledge of the various branches of literature, science, and the arts.

The Legislature of the State made further provision for the University in an act approved February 25, 1889, and entitled "An act to provide for the government and maintenance of the University of Kansas." This act, repealing all former legislation bearing upon the same topics, continues the name and appropriates $75,000 annually, which amount was increased by one-third in 1895.

The University of Kansas is located upon Mt. Oriad, a high and beautiful location in the southern limits of the City of Lawrence. Mt. Oriad contains several acres, and for miles around the eight large buildings of the University may be seen.

The Spooner Library Building was recently erected and is one of the finest buildings in the west. It contains a fire-proof book stack with a capacity of 200,000 volumes.

The Law School of this University was organized in 1878 with Judge James W. Green as Dean. Over 350 students have been graduated since the organization of the School.

Early in March, 1895, letters were received by the Secretary of the Council from Messrs. C. R. Troxel and R. R. Mitchell relative to the establishment of a Chapter of the fraternity at the University of Kansas.

Upon being informed as to the methods of procedure, they with ten other students prepared a printed petition, which was sent to the several Chapters in May of said year. The petition was endorsed by Governor Morrill, E. C. Little, ex-Consul to Egypt, Justices Valentine and Horton, Senator Martin, Dean Green and other members of the Faculty.

Inasmuch as the school term was near its end and the vote of the several Chapters could not well be secured, it was deemed advisable in the following autumn to prepare a supplemental petition with new members to take the place of those who had not returned for the new college year. Accordingly a renewed petition, bearing date of October 21, 1895, and signed by 22 members of the Green Law Club, was presented to the chapters for action. The Club and its members were supported by letters of recommendation from Justice Brewer, Senators Ingalls and Baker, and alumni of KENT, BOOTH, STORY, COOLEY, HAMILTON and TIEDEMAN Chapters practicing in Kansas City, Mo.

The petitions failed to receive the requisite number of affirmative votes before the end of the college year, and consequently remained in abeyance until the following spring, when Mr. Bates, one of the charter members, called upon President Rogers, and Mr. Wells wrote to the Secretary of the Council.

After the presentation of further evidence by Mr. Wells concerning the standing of the Law School and of the Green Law Club, several of the Chapters which had withheld their approval reconsidered their vote on the petitions, and the Council was empowered to issue a charter under date of May 27, 1897.

The local Chapter of the BETA THETA PI fraternity having tendered the use of their house for the occasion, the Chapter was instituted in their building on Monday, June 7, 1897, in the presence of a large number of alumni residing in the State of Kansas and in Kansas City, Mo. The Chapter was installed by Brothers J. G. Smith, KENT, '86, who on the following evening delivered the regular alumni address, J. D. Bowersock, CHOATE, '96, E. C. Meservey, COOLEY, '85, R. S. Horton, HAMILTON, '89, et al.

ALUMNI CHAPTERS.

AT THE afternoon session of the first day of the Second National Convention (3 P. M. Tuesday, May 7, 1889) the Constitution was amended by the insertion of the following clause:

Art. II., Sec. 5. Graduate Chapters may be organized by the Council upon petition of not less than four graduate members of the fraternity residing in one locality.

Subsequent Conventions have not altered this section except to designate Chapters organized under it, "Alumni Chapters."

We deem it well to quote the following from p. 10 of the Minutes of the Third National Convention, being the Report of the Council submitted by Brother Baird:

"In the winter of 1889 and 1890, the first application for the establishment of an alumni chapter was received from certain members resident in San Francisco and its vicinity. The Council promptly granted the petition, but the charter, which was issued to them June 1, 1890, was lost in transit, and a duplicate thereof was not delivered until later in the same year. This was the first of the alumni chapters to be formed. We have not learned that it has had any very active existence, but presume that its activities have been sufficient to warrant its formation.

"In June, 1892, nine alumni residing in Chicago petitioned the Council for a charter as an alumni chapter, and in September of the same year five graduates of the Cooley Chapter, residing in St. Louis, made a similar petition. Charters were granted to both of these sets of petitioners on the 22nd of December, 1892, and were issued to them in due form."

The present Secretary of the Council reported to the Fourth National Convention that he had been unable to find out anything about the first named Alumnus Chapter.

A copy of the charter issued to the "SAINT LOUIS ALUMNUS CHAPTER" under date of September 22, 1892, shows that the Charter members were Harry J. Cantwell, COOLEY, '88; William F. Carter, KENT, '90; W. Palmer Clarkson, COOLEY, '89; Albert N. Edwards, COOLEY, '88, and Daniel N. Kirby, COOLEY, '88.

Of the Chicago Alumnus Chapter and those established since the Third National Convention we have been able to secure the following information:

CHICAGO ALUMNUS CHAPTER.

An effort to establish such a Chapter was begun about ten years ago, when the following letter was written, appearing on p. 162 in the fifth and last number of The Brief:

CHICAGO, May 5th, 1888.

WM. RAIMOND BAIRD, Sec'y Phi Delta Phi Council:—

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:—There is an Alumni Association of Phi Delta Phi and I am directed by the Executive Committee to communicate with you and ascertain if we can get a charter from the Grand Chapter.

We are the first Alumni Association we know of, and you will confer a favor by an early response, as it is nearly time for our annual banquet and meeting.

Fraternally yours,

JUDSON F. GOING,

Secretary Alumni Association, Phi Delta Phi.

However, the real beginning of the present Chapter was at a banquet of BOOTH Chapter held at the University Club, June 15, 1892. The toast, "Our Fraternity," had been assigned to Brother Katzenberger, but owing to illness he was not present. Brother Ludington responded to the toast and suggested the idea of establishing an Alumnus Chapter in the City of Chicago.

The Toast Master, Frank O. Lowden, BOOTH, '87, appointed the following Committee on Organization:

Rowland S. Ludington, BOOTH, '91, Chairman.
Edward G. Ritsher, STORY, '89.
Harry M. Bates, BOOTH, '92.
G. Fred. Rush, KENT, '90.
Wm. Forrest Pillsbury, CHOATE, '92.
Geo. A. Katzenberger, KENT, '90.
Chas. F. Morse, BOOTH, '91.
W. H. Dickson, BOOTH, '92.
Wm. H. Safford, BOOTH, '90.

This committee held numerous meetings in the office of Brother Ludington, prepared a formal petition, secured the signatures of seven applicants (Ludington, Mason, Safford, Katzenberger, Dickson, Bates and Rush) and prepared a Constitution and By-Laws.

Under date of September 22, 1892, a charter was issued by Secretary Baird to the seven brothers last named, who thereupon filed Articles of Incorporation under the laws of Illinois, on September 26, 1892.

A seal was designed, and first used on January 10, 1893, when a printed invitation was sent to all brothers known to be located in the city. The invitation was signed by the aforementioned committee of nine, Brothers Ludington, Pillsbury and Bates as Banquet Committee, and Brothers Frank H. Scott, BOOTH, '81, George Mills Rogers, BOOTH, '81, and J. A. Burhans, BOOTH, '80, as Reception Committee.

From said Invitation we quote:

"The Legal Fraternity of Phi Delta Phi will have a banquet at the Great Northern Hotel, at 6:30 P. M., Wednesday, January 25, 1893. Dr. Henry Wade Rogers, President of the Northwestern University, will preside as Toast Master. Among those who will respond to toasts are: Hon. George W. Cass, President of the Bar Association; County Attorney Francis W. Walker, Frank A. Helmer, Arthur D. Wheeler, Frank O. Lowden, Prof. Nathan Abbott and George Mills Rogers. It is expected, also, that Judge Walter Q. Gresham will have been initiated by that date, and also will be present and will respond. Lockwood Honoré and S. F. Hawley will provide music."

The "Bill of Particulars" in the case of Inner Man vs. Roast S. Quail evidenced an elaborate Menu, while the program as actually rendered follows:

Qui peccat ebrius, luat sobrius.

President HENRY WADE ROGERS,
Toast Master.

THE REASONABLE MAN, . . . George W. Cass
IN CONTEMPT, ... Francis W. Walker

SONG,
Lockwood Honoré.

SURPLUSAGE, ... Arthur D. Wheeler
THE WORLD'S FAIR, ... Frank A. Helmer
LEGAL HUMOR, ... Nathan Abbott

SONG,
S. F. Hawley.

POLICE POWER, ... George Mills Rogers
THE PHILISTINES, ... Frank O. Lowden

At this first meeting the following officers were elected:

DR. HENRY WADE ROGERS, President.
HON. GEORGE MILLS ROGERS, First Vice-President.
ARTHUR DANA WHEELER, Second Vice-President.
ROWLAND S. LUDINGTON, Treasurer.
ISRAEL SHRIMSKI, Secretary.

During the session of the Third National Convention of PHI DELTA PHI in July, 1893, the Alumnus Chapter arranged for the entertainment of the visiting delegates, and on the evening of July 17 a "rocky" boat-ride was taken.

The next annual meeting was held on Tuesday evening, January 30, 1894, those desiring to take supper together meeting between 6 and 6:15 P. M. in the lobby of the Sherman House. At 7:15 P. M. the regular business meeting was held, and the same officers re-elected. At 8 P. M. the brothers in a body attended "Pan Jan Drum" by the DeWolf Hopper Opera Company, at the Grand Opera House.

The following regular banquet was held Monday evening, March 18, 1895, at the Chicago Athletic Club, and was designed to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Fraternity. At the business meeting the following were elected to the repective offices:

ARTHUR DANA WHEELER, President.
HON. GEORGE MILLS ROGERS, First Vice-President.
EUGENE HENRY DUPEE, Second Vice-President.
ROWLAND S. LUDINGTON, Treasurer.
ISRAEL SHRIMSKI, Secretary.

The fourth annual banquet was held at Kinsley's on Tuesday evening, May 12, 1896, and was made the occasion of the installation of the Melville W. Fuller Law Club of the Chicago College of Law, as the FULLER Chapter. At the conclusion of the postprandial part, several of the members of the new Chapter were regularly initiated by the active members of BOOTH Chapter.

New officers were elected, as follows:

FRANK AMBROSE HELMER, President.
L. W. WINCHESTER, First Vice-President.
B. M. SMITH, Second Vice-President.
ROWLAND S. LUDINGTON, Treasurer.
WIRT E. HUMPHREY, Secretary.

Under date of June 1, 1897, the next invitation was sent to resident members notifying them of the annual meeting to be held Monday, June 14, 1897, at 6:30 o'clock P. M., at the Union League Club. The business meeting was followed by the first joint banquet of the Chicago Alumnus Chapter and BOOTH and FULLER Chapters, and the initiation of five Honorary members of FULLER Chapter.

The "After Dinner" feast of reason and flow of sou was programmed:

I. President's Address.

II. Introduction of Honorary members of FULLER Chapter. John F. Gilchrist.

RESPONSES:

(1) "Legal Ethics," . Hon. Thomas A. Moran
(2) "The Boys," . . Hon. Orrin N. Carter
(3) "Juries," . . . Hon. Edmund W. Burke
(4) "The Lawyers' Weak Points, as Seen From the Bench," . . . Hon. John Gibbons
(5) "The Young Lawyer," . Prof. E. E. Barrett

III. The Executive Council," . Hon. Geo. Mills Rogers
IV. "BOOTH Chapter," . . . Charles G. Little
V. "Our Future," . . . . L. W. Winchester
VI. "Chancery," . . . .

IMPROMPTUS.

The roll of officers elected at this meeting for the year 1897–8 is as follows:

L. W. WINCHESTER, President.
T. E. D. BRADLEY, First Vice-President.
F. L. FAKE, JR., Second Vice-President.
CHAS. H. BLATCHFORD, Treasurer.
W. E. HUMPHREY, Secretary.

The number of brothers in attendance at these annual banquets has been gradually increasing, there being about fifty present at the last named.

PHI DELTA PHI CLUB OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

We do not know whether or not this club was chartered by the Council, as it was organized in October, 1890, prior to the term of office of the present Council. Inasmuch as its work is similar to that of the chartered Chapters we here include it. It is composed of graduates of STORY, FIELD and other Chapters, residing in New York City or vicinity, and of a few other lawyers of good standing and congenial tastes, as associate members.

Its annual meetings are held on the second Monday in December of each year at No. 9 West Thirty-first street. Its regular meetings are held on the second Monday of every month from October to May, inclusive, at some hotel or club. The members present, usually about twenty-five in number, sit down to dinner at half past six. Most of them come directly from their offices to the club, thus giving an informal tone to the assembly.

As soon as the coffee is served and the cigars lighted some distinguished guest of the evening addresses the club on some topic of practice or professional ethics, and a member of the club reads a paper prepared for the occasion. The reading is followed by a general discussiion. The program is often varied by the club resolving itself into an Equity Court and hearing arguments of counsel upon questions of law.

The officers for 1897 are:

HENRY W. JESSUP, President.

PAUL E. DEFERE, Vice-President.

NORMAN J. MARSH, Secretary.

CHARLES M. CAMP, Treasurer.

It is hoped that in time the relations of the two undergraduate chapters with the club will become so cordial that a house can be secured for the use of both active and alumni members.

SAN FRANCISCO ALUMNUS CHAPTER.

In the autumn of 1896 Brother T. A. Perkins, of POMEROY Chapter, '96, interested a number of Alumni in his city in his effort to establish an Alumnus Chapter, and on November 3, 1896, a charter was granted to T. A. Perkins, J. R. Aitken, J. C. Boyle, W. I. Brobeck, G. W. Lane, G B. Littlefield, O. K. McMurray and B. G. Somers.

The temporary officers chosen were:

HON. JOHN R. AITKIN, President.

HON. CHARLES W. SLACK,
WM. I. BROBECK,
GEO. W. LANE,
} Vice-Presidents.

T. A. PERKINS, Secretary.

GEO. B. LITTLEFIELD, Treasurer.

The first reunion and dinner of the Chapter was held at the Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, on Monday evening, March 22, 1897, at 6 o'clock.

The officers chosen for 1897–98 are:

T. A. PERKINS, President.

HON. CHARLES W. SLACK,
WM. I. BROBECK,
JOHN R. AITKIN,
} Vice-Presidents.

ORRIN K. MCMURRAY, Secretary.

BEVERLY L. HODGHEAD, Treasurer.

The Executive Committee consists of the President, Secretary and Treasurer, and it is their duty to arrange for the next meeting.

CINCINNATI ALUMNUS CHAPTER.

Under date of November 11, 1896, Brother T. L. Pogue, of MINOR Chapter, 1891–2, and HAMILTON Chapter, '93, notified the Council that a large body of Alumni members located in and about Cincinnati had decided to permanently organize themselves into a graduate Chapter.

After the presentation of a formal petition, signed by twenty applicants, a charter was issued on December 23, 1897, to the following Charter members:

FERDINAND JELKE, JR., C. J. MCDIARMID, J. C. CLORE, T. L. POGUE, J. D. FOLLETT, G. A. TURRILL, C. D. JONES, W. C. MCLEAN, C. C. BENEDICT, M. L. GALVIN, S. D. ROUSE, G. W. MALLON, G. E. MILLS, R. F. MORRIS, G. D.

HARPER, F. S. BROWN, C. J. BAER, C. T. COPPOCK, T. H. DARBY and E. M. BALLARD.

The formation of Alumni Chapters in large cities is most commendable. They serve not only to bring the otherwise unacquainted brothers into truly fraternal relations, but also enable them to extend to one another professional courtesies. Their chief aim should be to inculcate by example a higher standard of professional ethics. Incidentally they would be of considerable value to active Chapters in securing Chapter headquarters.

GEOGRAPHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF MEMBERS

The names are arranged alphabetically by states and towns. The letters affixed to each name denote the Chapter of which the person named is a member, while the figures following indicate the class or year of graduation.

We have selected the following abbreviations to designate the several Chapters:

K.....Kent	Cg.....Conkling
Be.....Benjamin	T.....Tiedeman
Bo.....Booth	Min.....Minor
St.....Story	Dil.....Dillon
Cy.....Cooley	Ds.....Daniels
P.....Pomeroy	Cha.....Chase

Gentlemen:--

I heartily recommend the Am. & Eng. Encyclopedia of Law; it is a great step in advance of the so called complete digests of law; the use of which, instead of developing the principles involved, tends to the making of case lawyers. A digest of cases apart from the principles is like a body without life.

Very truly yours,

W. A. Woods

Giauque's Notary's and Conveyancer's Manual.—For Conveyancers, Commissioners, Justices, Mayors, etc., as to Acknowledgements, Affidavits, Depositions, Oaths, Proofs, Protests, etc., and the Execution of Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, etc. By FLORIEN GIAUQUE. 8vo. Cloth, $2.00; sheep, $2.50

The above mentioned officers, attorneys, and others, often want to know how to execute deeds, mortgages, and similar instruments, and take acknowledgements, depositions, etc., for use in other States as well as in their own. And such a manual, to be of much use to them, must tell them how to do all of these things for use elsewhere, as well as for use at home. This book does so. It covers the ground.

Sayler's American Form Book.—A Collection of Legal and Business forms, embracing Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, Bonds, Wills, Contracts, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Checks, Bills of Sale, Receipts, and other Legal Instruments, prepared in accordance with the Laws of the several States, with instructions for drawing and executing the same. By JUDGE J R. SAYLER. Second edition. 8vo. Cloth, net, $2.00; sheep, $2.50.

Harris' Criminal Law.—Principles of Criminal Law. A Concise Exposition of the Nature of Crime and the Law of Criminal Procedure. By SEYMOUR F. HARRIS. Third edition. With Additions and Notes, adapting it to the American Law, by JUDGE M. F. FORCE, Professor of Equity and Criminal Law in the Cincinnati Law School. 8vo. Net, $4.00.

Montesquieu's Spirit of Laws.—The Spirit of Laws. By M. DE SECONDAT, Baron De Montesquieu. Translated from the French by THOMAS NUGENT. A new edition, carefully revised and compared with the best Paris edition To which are prefixed a Memoir of the Life and Writings of the Author, and an Analysis of the Work, by M. D'ALEMBERT. 2 vols. 8vo. Cloth. Net, $4.00.

Fortescue's De Laudibus Legum Angliæ.—A treatise in commendation of the Laws of England. By CHANCELLOR SIR JOHN FORTESCUE. Translated by FRANCIS GREGOR, with Notes by ANDREW AMOS, the original Latin text and a Life of the Author by THOMAS (FORTESCUE) LORD CLERMONT. 8vo. Cloth. Net, $2.00.

Saint Germain's Doctor and Student—The Doctor and Student; or, Dialogues between a Doctor of Divinity and a Student in the Laws of England, containing the grounds of those Laws, together with the Questions and Cases concerning the Equity thereof. To which are added two pieces concerning Suits in Chancery by Subpœna. By CHRISTOPHER ST. GERMAIN. Revised and corrected by WILLIAM MUCHALL. 8vo. Cloth. Net, $2.00.
